“No news is good news.”

This popular notion is based on the ancient proverbial saying, “Bad news travels fast and far,” quoted by Plutarch about 100 A.C. In the 16th century, English playwright Thomas Kyd introduced the line “Evil news fly faster still than good,” and in Paradise Lost Milton observed that “evil news rides post [express], while good news baits [stops for food and rest].”

Dear Bob:

I need a job.

Due to a decrease in enrollment, I am not teaching at Penn State this semester, and it doesn't look like I'll be teaching during the Spring semester.

Currently, I am working part-time in the bakery at the Dickson City Wegman's, for slightly more than minimum wage.

I have a couple of ideas about how I could be very useful to the Lackawanna Heritage Valley. Possibly I could meet with you to discuss those ideas? A copy of my resume is enclosed.

RE: Full-time position as proofreader

Dear Sir or Madam:

I would like to be considered for the position of full-time proofreader at ICS Learning Systems, as advertized in the December 4, 1994 edition of The Scranton Times. A copy of my résumé is enclosed.

As you will note from my résumé, I have had broad experience in publishing, including proofreading, particularly in the period that I worked for American Management Associations, Harcourt Brace Jovanovich, and The Carbondale News.

Attached is a copy of the newspaper ad for the position of proofreader at ICS Learning Systems. As you will note, I have recommended four corrections to the text of the ad as published in the newspaper.

I look forward to hearing from you.

ICS Learning Systems-the world's leader in distance education is seeking a full-time proofreader for our Product Development department. The person selected will proofread texts for errors in grammar, punctuation, composition, and consistency. Applicant should possess a B.A. in English or related field in the Humanities, an excellent grasp of the English language, a keen eye for detail, and an ability to meet deadlines and to work well with members of a production team. At least one-year proofreading experience desired. Freelance proofreading positions may also be available. Send resume to:

"the world's leader in distance education" is used in apposition to "ICS Learning Systems"; lines 1-3 should, therefore, be punctuated as follows: "ICS Learning Systems, the world's leader in distance education, is seeking..."

"consistency" and not "consistency"

"At least one-year proofreading experience..." is not correct. There are two possibilities: "At least one year of proofreading experience..." or "At least one-year's proofreading experience..."

CHICKEN SHEET

12/4/94

Dear Mr. Powell,

I have recently developed an interesting new standard breed bird. I've named them, Tasseled muffed Tufted Spangled Brazilian rosecomb Guinea Rumpies. They breed true 33 1/4 percent of the time, have a 26 1/4% hatchability rate, and are extremely disease resistant. (As long as they are given Terramycin every day of their life.) They also hate sunlight, so it's best to house them in darkness.

Boxes.
Would you please try some?
The new (cheap) introductory rate is only $150.00 per dozen chicks! Live arrival not guaranteed.

I feel you'll find them a welcome addition to your flock!

Sincerely,
Jma Geck

ps. I also breed them in 45 1/8 exciting non standard colors.

Dear Thola & Dick,

also glad to see that Audrey

you and your birds in the 12/94 PP (p. 38).

I've got lots of chicks out already & the incubator is again full. This hobby is the source of great pleasure for me — and I'm sure it is for you also.

MANUFACTURED BY

NARROWSBURG FEED AND GRAIN CO., INC.

NARROWSBURG, NEW YORK 12764

1-800-582-0306

December 15, 1994

Dear Friends:

As of January 1, 1995, there will be some changes in our business. Narrowsburg Feed & Grain Co., Inc. was built about 1940 and owned by the Dailey family. Gladys Maas and I were employed by the Dailey family for a number of years and on March 1, 1971 we purchased the business. As of January 1, 1995, Gladys will be retiring after 45 years of service with the company. The ownership of Narrowsburg Feed & Grain Co., Inc. will be changing hands as of that time. The new owners will be Pat Brown and Ray Villeneuve. They presently own and operate Brown's Feed, Inc. of Frankfort, New York. Brown's Feed covers a fairly large area in Northeastern New York. A large part of their business is dairy. They also have a location that specializes in mineral feeds and other feed additives. This is Harbor Point Minerals in Utica, New York. They are young individuals with progressive ideas and I surely feel they will be good for this business and this area. I will be remaining with the new company, as well as all of our other employees. There will not be any changes in the name of the company or in the Honor Brand symbol of quality. I do think by pooling our purchases and sharing some of our overhead, we can be even more competitive and offer more services in the future. Please, along with all of our people, wish Gladys the very best in her retirement years.

Thank you, one and all, for the business you have given us over the years. We have tried to supply you with quality products at competitive prices. I'm sure Narrowsburg Feed & Grain Co., Inc. will continue to do this in the future.

If you have any questions or comments on these changes, please call us here at the office or talk with our sales and service people.

We would also like to take this opportunity to wish you all Happy Holidays and a Healthy and Prosperous New Year.

Sincerely yours

NARROWSBURG FEED & GRAIN CO., INC.

Directors: Tom Richardson, Wilma Smith

(The positions of Show Superintendent and Editor of the NEWSLETTER are appointed positions. Those two appointments will be made by the President of the CPAC for 1995. If you have any thoughts as to the persons who should be appointed to those positions, make known your thoughts to the President of the CPAC that is elected for 1995.)

If you were not present at the CPAC meeting on December 11th, and you would like to nominate someone for President, First Vice President, Second Vice President, Secretary/Treasurer, Director, find out from the person you are interested in nominating if he or she is interested in having his/her name on the ballot. Having found out that information, you must notify the Editor of the NEWSLETTER (name and address on the top of page 1 of this and every NEWSLETTER) that you are interested in making one or more nominations. Time is of the essence, because we want to be able to send out ballots before the end of December. So, if you want to nominate someone, send the name of your nominee to the Editor so that your letter is received by the Editor before December 23rd.

The Editor will then add the names of all nominees that are received by mail (before December 23rd) to those nominations that were made at the December 11th meeting. The result will be a ballot for the officers and directors of the CPAC for 1995. Ballots will then be mailed to all members during the last week of December.

I repeat: time is of the essence. If you want to nominate someone, get into high gear and do what you have to do before December 23rd.

1994 & 1995 APA YEARBOOK ADS

Reproduced herein on page 3 is one of the full-page ads that the CPAC placed in the 1994 APA YEARBOOK. We have reproduced this ad for two reasons: (1) to show all club members how impressive the display ads in the APA YEARBOOK are; and (2) to find out if you are interested in placing an ad in the 1995 APA YEARBOOK. When the club takes out a full-page ad, the APA gives the club the ad space at the top of the page. Below that space, in the ad shown herein on page 3, are five display ads that were taken out by club members for the 1994 YEARBOOK. The ads taken out by David Potter, Carl and Betty Harris, Walter and Rose Marie Casazza, and S. Robert Powell are each $10 ads; the ad taken out by Craig Russell is a $20 ad.

If you want to take out an ad for 1995, contact Mark Whitebread, who has volunteered to coordinate the club's ad for 1995. Mark's address and telephone number are as follows:

Mark D. Whitebread
R. R. 1, Box 59
Shickshinny, PA 18655-9732
Telephone: 717-256-3127

Call or write to Mark now to reserve your space for the 1995 ad. There is no limit to the number of pages that the club can place in the APA YEARBOOK each year. If you need help in working out the details of the copy for your ad, Mark will be glad to help you.

1994 & 1995 ABA YEARBOOK ADS

Last year, an effort was made to get together a group of CPAC members to place a full-page ad in the ABA YEARBOOK, which is, in every respect, equally as impressive as the APA YEARBOOK. Enough club members to pay for the full-page ad could not be located, and the CPAC did not place a full-page ad in the 1994 ABA YEARBOOK.

At the December 11th CPAC meeting in Hughesville, there was much interest expressed in placing a full-page ad in the 1995 ABA YEARBOOK. Mark Whitebread will also co-ordinate the proposed ABA ad for 1995. At this writing, we are not sure what the ad prices in the ABA YEARBOOK will be, but they will, in all probability, be comparable to those in effect for the APA. The important thing for you to do now is to contact Mark Whitebread and tell him that you are interested in placing a space ad in the 1995 ABA YEARBOOK. The exact details on price and wording of the ads can be worked out in the next month or so.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS REVISION

At the December 11th meeting in Hughesville, it was the consensus of opinion that the CPAC's Constitution and By-Laws should be revised. It was agreed that the best time to do so would be after the elections for 1995 are completed.

In the meantime, we have reprinted herein, on pages 4-6, the present Constitution and By-Laws of the CPAC. We have done so in order to give all members a chance to read over the present document and to think about revisions that are thought to be necessary and/or desirable. A committee will be named in January 1995 to take charge of preparing the revised document. After the committee has been appointed, you will then communicate your thoughts to the committee as to revisions that are necessary and/or desirable to the CPAC's Constitution and By-Laws.

THANK YOU WILMA SMITH

Many thanks to Wilma Smith for hosting the CPAC meeting on December 11, 1994. The gracious hospitality of our hostess was much appreciated by all present. The ham and cheese sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, nuts and soda that were served by Mrs. Smith at the conclusion of the meeting were not only delicious but also truly "hit the spot."

The Polish Fowl

As I begin this I feel like Edward Lear's old man in a boat. "Who said 'I'm afloat!' I'm afloat." When they said "No, you ain't." He was ready to faint. That unhappy old man in a boat."

Because I have never ever bred or even owned a Polish Chicken. But they have always piqued my interest. Ever since I first saw them on the lawn of a neighbor's when I was quite young. He frequently turned out his 15-20 White

Crested black Polish hens on the lawn on warm evenings always keeping a watchful eye on them until they went to roost. One evening he was distracted for a while. Suddenly remembering his birds he rushed outside to find the Polish had fled going out into the street, they were nowhere in sight. Running around the corner he turned to spy the flock. All in the middle of the road marching along in the wrong direction. Shortly after that he surrounded his yard with an ornamental fencing. That is when I learned that the crest limited their field of vision to straight ahead. This incident happened when automobiles traveled at a slower pace than today, and most people walked or drove a horse-drawn vehicle. My affair with chickens started when I was about five years old and has endured these many years. Reading many books about poultry The Paduan or Polish always were mentioned.

From the time of ancient Rome, naturalists interested in farming devoted in much detail the care and breeding of chickens. The one breed that was always mentioned was the one with knob on his skull holding the crest. Professor Alessandro Ghigi of the University of Bologna, Italy in his POULTRY FARMING AS DESCRIBED BY THE WRITERS OF ANCIENT ROME. Quoted from Verro 116-27 B.C.; CATO 96-46 B.C.; Columella 10-80 A.D. and

PP- 1/95-p.19

Palladius 310-380 A.D. suggests that the Paduan that we call Polish has existed since ancient times based on a statue of a hen with a full crest and a small divided comb much like today's. Polished one must remember that the Polish crest grows from a boney knob on the top of the Polish skull, as opposed to the fatty knob on the head of the crested duck.

The Netherlands was the probable source for most of the Polish in England which were bred and shown mixed with the Hamburgs at the little shows in the mining districts of England as early as 1810. The Rev. Edmund Saul Dixon's book ORNAMENTAL & DOMESTIC POULTRY, London, 1848 made the first careful distinctions between the Hamburg and the Polish. This just happened to coincide with the year when England had its first all breed Poultry Show.

George Ferguson in this FERGUSON'S ILLUSTRATED SERIES OF RARE, PRIZE AND DOMESTIC POULTRY, London, 1854, 38 pages with 22 hand colored plates of poultry. It contains the first and most comprehensive description of 11 varieties as follows, White Crested White (bearded), Black Crested White (bearded), White Crested Yellow Bearded, Black and White Speckled (bearded and non) Gray or Grizzled (bearded), Cuckoo (bearded), White Crested Blues or Dun (nonbearded) Blue Crested Blues or Duns (nonbearded), White Crested Blacks and Albinos (nonbearded), Black Crested 9 bearded, Golden Spangled (both), White Crested Golden Spangled (both), Silver Spangles (both) and White Crested Silver Spangled (both). This list was augmented by a complete detailed description of each color pattern. You of course noticed the second variety was the very rare Black Crested white. Five of the colored plates were of Polish and one of them was of the Black Crested White. This illusive variety comes in for more than its share of attention for Ferguson was determined to assure that it had been in existence from time to time ever since the time of U. Aldrovandi, 1522-1601 and had recently existed in the Low countries as the early as the first of the nineteenth century. I have heard of its existence in Belgium just before the Second World War and then again as recently as 1992. Of course as Ferguson said in regards to the Black Crested White Polish. To provide a proof of absense, is usually more difficult than of presence. He did not feel justified in allowing so beautiful a variety SO SOON escape memory or go unnoticed.

Twenty years later in 1874 the American Poultry Association came out with the first edition of the STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE which contained four varieties, all non-bearded; White Crested Black, Golden, Silver and White. So at last the Polish breed is verified from then on.

Harrison Weir in OUR POULTRY. 1902 England.

remarks that after a time of popularity of the Polish breed in England in 1896-1899 there were no classes for them at the Crystal Palace Shows because of low entries. And he felt that another good and useful breed was in danger of being lost. In the American revision called THE POULTRY BOOK IN THREE VOLUMES IN 1904 THAT the Polish Club had been formed in the USA and was now again on stable ground. So it seems that the Polish, like cats have many lives. Today it is at least as popular as it has ever been, and leybus hope there will never be a question about its existence.

The books that I have quoted have become very scarce and expensive. Thus rarely obtainable. I have none for sale. Read the ADS under BOOKS in the Poultry Press. You might get lucky.

Warren —

Here are my 1995 dues.

congratulations on the UOC
Newsletter. They are the lifeline that holds the organization together.

My standard Black orpingtons are just starting to lay. For the past couple years, I have maintained somewhat of a low profile with my orpingtons because I had to introduce some new blood into my line.

Things are now coming (over) together (I hope) and I should have some first class birds for the Fall & winter shows.

Sincerely,

Robert Powell

Dear Steve —

Please accept my apologies for the delay in answering your phone inquiry of 12/17/94 about standard Black Orpingtons.

I regret that I do not have any adult birds for sale at present. For the past couple of years, I have been working on incorporating some new blood into my line of Orpingtons.

My original birds are a combination of two bloodlines: Henry Miller (PA) and Ralph Brazleton (KS). a couple years ago I got some chicks from Cecil + Marie Moore (drowning, TX) and I crossed them into my line — and then culled very closely. I now have a small number of what I think are excellent birds. With any luck, I will have a fair number of young birds this Fall. Maybe I will have some for sale.

I appreciate your interest, and, if I have a good year of hatching, will contact you.

Best regards,

Dear Doris,

Thanks for the January 95 financial report for the Grange.

The chicken photograph from your Country magazine is wonderful. Thank you.

My mother's arm is coming along nicely, and the cast is scheduled to be removed on Jan. 23rd.

I hope you have been enjoying the spring-like weather. What a treat! Wouldn't it be something if we had a largely no-snow winter! That would be just fine with me.

Best regards to you and your mother,
Robert

Mr. Herbert C. Jordan
Chairman of the Poultry Committee
Farm Show Complex
2301 North Cameron Street
Harrisburg, PA 17110-9408

Dear Mr. Jordan:

At the January 8, 1995 meeting of the Central Pennsylvania Avian Club, Carl Harris presented a report on the 1995 Farm Show poultry exhibit and remarked that you were interested in upgrading the poultry show there and would like the names and addresses of poultry breeders and exhibitors who might be interested in showing at the Pennsylvania Farm Show in the future.

Enclosed is a copy of the current mailing list of the Central Pennsylvania Avian Club. I believe that all of the members of the club would be pleased to receive a copy of the premium book for next year's Farm Show. With the premium book in hand well in advance of the deadline for receipt of entries, it seems very probable that more than a few CPAC members would exhibit birds at the 1996 Farm Show. If that is, in fact, the case, I believe that the overall quality of the birds exhibited at Harrisburg would be higher than at present.

If we as an organization can be of any further assistance to you in the present effort to upgrade the poultry show at the Pennsylvania Farm Show, we shall be pleased to do whatever we can.

Sincerely,

S. Robert Powell

Dear John,

When I mailed you a copy of the 1/25/95 CPAC Newsletter, I inadvertently inserted (I think) a blank CPAC membership blank. Please be assured that I am not trying to strong arm you into becoming a member of the CPAC.

I sent you the Newsletter because I wanted you to see — and read for accuracy — the material on standard Modern Games on p. 4, columns 1 & 2. Did I get my facts straight in reporting on my conversation with you? You'll be interested to know that excellent fertility and hatchability.

I have chicks jumping out of 3139

I now order feed by the ton.

in?

I'm getting anxious to attend a poultry show.

Dear Bill + Christine,

The Wolferman's gift box of English muffins is now history. On more than one occasion, I ate three muffins at one sitting. Thank you very much.

at one point, one used to look for "meaningful" work (just as others quested for the Holy Grail or the Fountain of Youth). At present, one simply seeks work. I quit my job at Wal-Mart and now work in a bakery in one of those extra-fancy grocery stores that feels like what the old Lee Haller used to feel like in Paris. It's hard to believe that such a store could exist in this part of the state, but it does. I work in the bread department, in which about 15 different kinds of bread are made from scratch every day. In many respects, it is fun.

Declining enrollment at Penn State has resulted in an unwanted "vacation" for me: no classes for SPR to teach. Upsetting, but what can you do.

Things in the world of poultry are fine. Many chicks now hatched & growing well; incubator full of eggs; hens setting on eggs up in the barn. I was recently named a

"Master Exhibitor" by the American Poultry Association — and that pleases me very much.

Are you still interested in getting some Guinea fowl? I have a substantial flock of them and can provide you with as many as you would like.

I trust you are both well and are enjoying your house.

Best regards,

SRP

Dear Mr. Smith,

I appreciate your interest in my Golden Campines. I have been working with Campines for years and the young birds that I raised last year are, I think, the best ones I have ever had. One mating, in particular, resulted in some outstanding birds, which surprised me a great deal, since I regarded the mating as a back-up mating (an average hen from one bloodline to an excellent male from another).

In a week or two, I will start saving <sup>Campine</sup> eggs for hatching. I don't know what to tell you about day-old chicks. I have never sold any through the mail. What about eggs? ($15 a dozen).

Mostly I sell young birds (6 months + older) and adults at shows.

Let me know more about hatching eggs and day-olds in five or six weeks.

Mark -

Here is a copy of the revised document that we produced at Tom's last Friday night.

Recently, I have had three inquiries about day-old chicks (campines, Partridge Rock & Orpingtons).

Is the word ready for a joint venture poultry hatchery enterprise in which the considerable know how and skills of MDW & SRP are combined?

See you on the 12th.

Tom -

Here is the draft of the revision of the Constitution & By-Laws.

Please let me know if I have misunderstood any of the changes that we agreed upon at your kitchen table last Friday. If there are changes or corrections to be made, I can make them easily.

What is the battle plan? You will send copies to Craig & Leon before the 2/12 meeting? The revision will be discussed at the 2/12 meeting. Should the February Newsletter contain our final draft copy for the membership to study? at the March meeting, the proposed revision of the By-Laws will be given its second reading & then put to a vote by the members present.

I thank again for mailing the CPAC Newsletter last Saturday. I received my copy on Monday morning (as did Craig Russell, who phoned here on 1/31).

See you soon -

S.R.P

P.S. I will send a copy of the revised By-Laws to Mark today.

Dear Robert,

I received your (2) copies for membership to CPAC. Enclosed I have send you (1) copy with my 1995 membership. Our club is hoping you join us in 1995 we still have held our single membership at $5.00.

Yes I read your material concerning standard moderns. But like all written material there is a need for some additional information. The following is information I obtained from Frank Fay about Standard Moderns. He said his father (Elford) raised pit games until the late 1920's. His mother didn't like the kind of people that were hanging around, so she made Frank's father get rid of them. Then Frank and his father went to St. Catherines, Ontario Canada to buy birds. These birds were imported from England a short time before they got them.

They also bought birds from a Fermigere ? and Elliot. I am not sure if these birds came from Canada or not. If I find out anything else about the early start of Moderns, I will let you know. Frank Fay is 90 years old so the family has been with poultry for a long time. I have a old poultry paper dating 1889 that has a Ad about pit games from the Fays.

So your chicks are jumping out of their shells. I can only get my chicks to roll out of their shells. Must be the feed? I do have about 25 chicks out. They are a mix of varieties, pyle moderns, light brahmas, spangled OE, Black OE, and unknowns. I hope we can call you stringman Powell. There are a lot of empty cages we would like to fill. There will be a State Fair APA sanctioned show. We are going to have both breeders pens in bantams and standards.

Well it was good to hear from you and I hope you keep the local feed dealers happy.

February 9, 1995

Dear Members and Friends:

These are very interesting and exciting times for the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum. As you surely have heard, through a public/private partnership, a plan has been compiled for making Carbondale part of Pennsylvania's first State Heritage Park. At a public meeting on January 25, at the Pioneer Inn in Carbondale, the Carbondale Heritage Center Plan was presented to residents and business owners. The meeting was under the direction of Bob Durkin, Executive Director of the Lackawanna Heritage Valley Authority, and Tom Palmer of the Urban Research and Development Corporation of Bethlehem. A copy of this plan is available at the Historical Society for anyone who is interested in seeing the plan.

One of the most extraordinary and truly exciting aspects of the entire plan is that the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum and Carbondale City Hall will play an important role in making the plan a reality! Specifically, CARBONDALE CITY HALL WILL BE RESTORED AND THE FIRST FLOOR OF THE BUILDING WILL BE DEVOTED TO EXHIBITS BY THE CARBONDALE HISTORICAL SOCIETY AND MUSEUM AND THE LHVA!

If ever there was a time when the Society needed your participation, input, encouragement, support and guidance, IT IS NOW. Wednesday afternoons continue to be a good time to stop at the Society. Very shortly the Society's telephone will be back in operation. Get involved. You'll be amazed at how gratifying and interesting it can be to be part of the team that is building for the future of Carbondale on the strengths of the past.

Many members have already renewed their memberships for 1995. If you have already done so, please accept our thanks for having renewed your commitment to Carbondale's past, present and future. Membership cards are now being printed and will be mailed to all members in the next communication from the Society. If you have not yet renewed your membership (or if you have never become a member), fill out the enclosed membership form and mail it to the Society at the address given on the form.

The Society, as you know, is an all-volunteer organization. Not surprisingly, there are never enough volunteers to get done what we would like to accomplish. If you can spare a couple hours, especially on Wednesday afternoons, the Society would very much appreciate your help.

Sincerely yours,

S. Robert Powell

NEWSLETTER

3167

February 22, 1995

Editor: S. ROBERT POWELL

PH. 717-282-5197
R.D. 1, BOX 40
CARBONDALE, PA 18407

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Members and Friends,

If 100% of the members of the Central Pennsylvania Avian Club were active members, the CPAC could easily accomplish virtually any poultry objective that it set for itself. With no trouble at all, for example, the club could sponsor a national meet of the APA or the ABA. Maybe 100% active involvement is too much to hope for. But what about 80% active involvement by the membership in the CPAC? I'm sure that we can achieve 80% active involvement in the club by the membership.

I submit, therefore, an invitation to you and challenge you to show at (or, at the very least, attend) the CPAC's Spring show and auction.

We have, I feel, the potential to have the most phenomenal show in the country! (It's pretty Damn good now!) We have many talented and energetic people in the club. So I urge you to attend both events, and I guarantee you'll meet old friends, make some new ones, learn a great deal more about this wonderful hobby of ours, support the CPAC, and generally have a fantastic time! This is what it's all about. This is why we belong to the CPAC. Where else in Pennsylvania can you have two full days in a row of such rewarding poultry experience?

Our yearbook ads for both the APA and the ABA were mailed last week. These ads will be a definite feather in the CPAC's cap, as there are four full-page ads for the APA YEARBOOK and one full-page ad for the ABA YEARBOOK. Thank you to everyone for submitting your ads.

So, until the next NEWSLETTER, hatch those chicks, take good care of them, and start conditioning your birds for the show cages at Bloomsburg for the show on May 7th.

Mark Whitebread

FROM THE EDITOR

The most important thing that every one of us can do RIGHT NOW to guarantee the success of the Spring Show is to put up at least one "special" for the show. Read the article on page 14 of this NEWSLETTER and then fill out the "specials" form on page 13 and mail it, TODAY, to Carl Harris, at the address on the form. All "specials" must be received by Carl Harris before March 10th (which is just a couple weeks away). Don't put it off. Do it now! To be effective, "specials" must be printed in the show catalogue, and the catalogue will go to press on March 10th.

*****

Next year's PENNSYLVANIA FARM SHOW will take place January 6-11, 1996. Mark your calendar now.

THE NEXT CPAC MEETING

On March 12th, beginning at 1:00 P.M., the Central Pennsylvania Avian Club will meet again. The meeting will take place at Wally and Rose Casazza's place outside of Bloomsburg. Here are the directions: get off of I-80 at Exit 34 (Buckhorn), take Route 44 for 8 miles to the crossroads in Jerseytown, turn right (East) and go 3/10ths of a mile. The Casazza residence is on the left. Their phone number is: 717-458-6358.

WELCOME NEW MEMBER

We are pleased to welcome into membership JOHN REBHANN (3908 Abbey Road, Syracuse, NY 13215. 315-469-8897). John is one of the key figures in the Finger Lakes Feather Club and the poultry show at the New York State Fair. He raises bantam Modern Games (Black, Red Pyle, Silver Duckwing, B. B. Red) and standard Modern Games (B. B. Red).

HAMBURG EGGS FOR SALE

Dale Godwin (R. D. 4, Box 1065, Lebanon, PA 17042) has Hamburg eggs for sale at $10 per dozen plus postage. He has three kinds of Hamburg eggs for sale:

Bantam Silver-Spangled Hamburgs
Large Fowl Silver-Spangled Hamburgs
Large Fowl Golden-Penciled Hamburgs

EXOTIC PIGEONS WANTED

Will Iager (11820 Route 216, Fulton, MD 20759) would like to acquire some exotic/fancy pigeons (fantails, jacobins, etc.). He and his sister have several varieties of exhibition poultry at the present time. Will is a very enthusiastic young man and would appreciate hearing from someone with pigeons for sale at a reasonable price.

THE 1996 FARM SHOW

As Carl Harris reported at the CPAC meeting on 01-08-95 at Mark Whitebread's place, Herbert Jordan (the Chairman of the poultry committee at the Pennsylvania Farm Show) is interested in upgrading the poultry exhibit at the Farm Show. He asked Carl for the names and addresses of exhibitors of poultry who might be interested in showing at Harrisburg.

On 01-25-95, the Editor sent Herbert Jordan a copy of the complete CPAC mailing list. Very probably, all of us in the CPAC will receive promotional materials from the Farm Show in the course of the year and be invited to show at Harrisburg next January.

As you may know, the Pennsylvania Farm Show poultry show is now officially sanctioned by both the American Poultry Association and the American Bantam Association.

SOME FARM SHOW WINNERS

Carl also had RESERVE CHAMPION BANTAM OF THE SHOW on a White Cornish pullet.

Congratulations Betty and Carl on 3/64 those impressive wins!

CORRECTION

In the minutes of the 01-08-95 meeting of the CPAC (see 01-25-95 CPAC NEWSLETTER, pp. 9-10) we reported, erroneously, that it was Jane Hawn who wondered if the CPAC might be interested in setting up a display at another mall beside the Susquehanna Valley Mall. The idea of setting up a poultry display at not only the SVM but also other malls--a very good idea, to be sure--was raised by Wally Casazza and Craig Russell (not Jane Hawn).

HAMBURGS IN SCOTLAND

Penny Richards, the daughter of one of Donald Powell's students at Penn State, transcribed and annotated, in 1994, a collection of "Letters from Sarquhar, Dumfriesshire, Scotland to Dunmore, Pennsylvania, USA 1852-1903 with miscellaneous other letters to the Brydens and Glencrosses of 207 Helen Street 1859-1896."

In one of the letters in that collection, dated June 4, 1879, Thomas Glencross Scott, in Scotland, writes the following to his Uncle John Glencross, in Dunmore, PA:

"...you sed I had shurly a good stock of poultry I have the best stock of Hamburgs I think in Scotland the have to cum from York and Leads Lincolnshire the best Breeders in England the do nothing else but attend shows and make their living of them and a good one to I sold eggs of my birds this year at 6 shillings and 6 pence a dozen their were 2 settings sent to Nottingham and i am going to have a draw for 4 pair of my prize birds and I am getting them printed at Dumfries I intend to make a little money of it in this dull times I will not stick at nothing I had 44 chickings 5 some 10 weeks old and on Monday night the rates found them and thought they would make a good supper and killed 6 of them and the best to i could have got a pound a peace for them It will tell hard against me this year for the shows as you can scarce get them to run, the shows too years althoe I have an old cock this year has only been shown two times took 1 at Sanquhar and first and special at New Cumnock show the judge told me he was the best cock that he had seen and he put it in the papers to and I took 2 to at New Cumnock my next show will be Dumfries union show which is in August i mean to take first at it to if i am well... I could fill a letter about my birds with prizes and remarks at shows but i will let them drop..."

Thomas Glencross Scott's enthusiasm for his Hamburgs and his interest in showing them are, I think, very understandable to most of us.

Many very interesting facts are presented in this letter: quality Hamburg eggs sold for 6 shillings and 6 pence a dozen in 1879; Thomas Scott's best Hamburg chicks could have been sold for one pound sterling each (a very large sum of money in 1879), the best poultry breeders in England in 1879 could earn their living by attending shows, etc.

One never knows where interesting poultry information will turn up.

SOME ORNITHOLOGICAL NOTES

At the February 12, 1995 meeting of the CPAC, Craig Russell reported that on January 30th he had seen a flock of robins. Carl Harris reported that he had seen robins and blue birds on February 3rd.

On the way to the Harris' on the same day, Tom Richardson, Mark Whitebread and S. Robert Powell, traveling in Tom Richardson's car, saw a flock of wild turkeys at the edge of a wooded area. SRP reported that there is a flock of no less than 35 wild turkeys that he has seen daily for the past couple weeks near his barn. The turkeys, crows and blue jays are right there not long after SRP spreads under the spruce trees some of the coop-cleanings from the poultry barn.

BARRED ROCKS

On 01-08-95, Craig Russell reported that CPAC member, Steve Spigelmeyer, had a hatch of 66 standard Barred Rock chicks from 80 eggs that day. Those are very good numbers. Congratulations Steve on a successful hatch.

BLACK DORKINGS

By Craig Russell

Less than a century and a half ago, the Dorking boasted almost as many color patterns as the Game. Most of these were land races that had developed more or less naturally in various areas or even on single steadings. (In most cases, development was probably affected by the local ideas of beauty or their owner's desire to distinguish his flock from that of his neighbors.) Others were developed by fanciers.

One color that falls into both groups was the Black. Black Dorkings sometimes appear in flocks of Colored, Drak Gray, Dark Birchen Gray or Cuckoo Dorkings. Except for Cuckoo based Blacks, pure Black males are very rare; however, the use of mostly Black males or Black females or putting Black pullets back on their fathers when coupled with patience and selection can produce true breeding Black strains with pure black males.

But, as with Red Dorkings, Black Dorkings are a variety with a controversy here; however, it is rather simple and concerns leg color. As you know, Dorkings are a white-legged breed and to some a Dorking without white legs is no Dorking. While most Black Dorkings tend to have dark legs (black with white or pink bottoms to the foot), it is possible to breed blacks with white legs if they have light undercolor. This goes against accepted thinking in breeding black chickens and at least in males and sometimes even in females usually produces a bird that shows white at the base of the tail. As you can see, neither option is satisfactory to all Dorking breeders. Over the years, I've seen and even had some birds that convince me that dark under color is possible on black birds with dirty or off-white legs. This might be an accepted compromise.

At any rate, I showed a Black pullet (from Dark Birchen Grays) two years ago at Frederick, Maryland, and have received numerous calls and letters about Blacks ever since. So even with a leg color problem, interest in Black Dorkings exists.

Currently the Secretary of The Dorking Club and Tom Knoche (from "seed savers") both have Blacks and are working with them.

In the first half of the 19th century and even in the middle of that century, Black Dorkings were often called Japan Dorkings. This had nothing to do with where they were from, but referred to their color (Japan was famous for shiny black china at that time).

So Black Dorkings should be shiny. Blacks coming from other colors are often, but not always, dull, but once again, this can be corrected with careful selection.

The Duckwing pattern is my idea of a beautiful chicken, but large shiny black birds look good in any breed.

(The above article is reprinted here from the Spring-Summer 1994 DORKING NEWSLETTER, pp. 1-2)

Editor's note: In 1688, at Oxford, John Stalker's A TREATISE OF JAPANING AND VARNISHING was published. Japanning, a varnishing process used to imitate Oriental lacquer, was done to both ceramics and furniture, particularly in the late seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.

FROM THE NINETEENTH CENTURY

In EIGHTY YEARS' PROGRESS OF THE UNITED STATES: A FAMILY RECORD OF AMERICAN INDUSTRY, ENERGY AND ENTERPRISE. (Volume I, 1868, pp. 90-91), under the heading "Poultry and Eggs," we read the following: "... The value of poultry, according to the census of 1840, was no less than $12,176,170. This sum, great as it appears, has been increased to some twenty-five millions of dollars. The city of New York alone pays about two millions of dollars a year for eggs. And so the other large cities require a supply in proportion.

The keeping of poultry, therefore, is by no means an insignificant item in the products of our agriculture... The keeping of poultry, like that of bees, may be set down as among the means of making the farm attractive, in addition to the actual profit which may be derived from keeping a limited number of choice fowls, and the production of eggs for family use."

THANK YOU CARL AND BETTY HARRIS

Special thanks to Carl and Betty Harris for hosting the February meeting of the CPAC. Given the coldness of the day, the hot coffee that was served during the meeting was very much appreciated by the members. A delicious cake, accompanied by several fruit toppings, was served following the meeting and was thoroughly enjoyed by one and all, as were the pretzels, potato chips and dips with vegetables. Good fellowship and good food, with lots of poultry talk thrown in for good measure: what a perfect way to spend the day!

WALTER FRANKLIN

The question was asked at the 02-12-95 meeting of the CPAC: is Walter Franklin, from Clark's Summit, still alive? Walter Franklin made Partridge, Buff and White Chanteclers, using, in part, Cornish that he had from Carl Harris.

CPAC MEETING, 02-12-1995

On February 12, 1995, a regular business meeting of the Central Pennsylvania Avian Club took place at the residence of Carl and Betty Harris in Montoursville. The meeting was called to order at 1:00 P.M. by President Mark Whitebread. The following members were present: Mark D. Whitebread, Seth Harris, Thomas E. Richardson, Craig T. Russell, Rose Marie Casazza, Rodney Fry, Carl Harris, Betty Harris, Wally Casazza, Leon Keeler, S. Robert Powell, and Harold Strawser. Also present was Howard Parks, a prospective member of the club.

President Whitebread ("MDW") opened the meeting by thanking Carl and Betty Harris for hosting the meeting at their house. MDW also thanked the large number of members present for attending.

The minutes of the 01-08-95 meeting, as published in the 01-25-95 CPAC NEWSLETTER, were approved as published and ordered placed on file. Wally Casazza, Treasurer, presented the financial report for 02-12-95. That report is presented herein on p. 3, column 2. It was moved (Richardson) and seconded (Russell) that the Treasurer's report be approved as read. The motion carried.

Tom Richardson, chairman of the By-Laws Revision Committee, distributed copies of the revised by-laws that the committee has produced and remarked on some of the primary revisions that have been proposed. The presentation of the proposed revision at the meeting on 02-12-95 will be regarded as the first reading of the revision. The proposed revised document is published in this issue of the NEWSLETTER on pp. 7-9. Members who have comments or suggestions for revisions or amendments are asked to contact Tom Richardson (R. D. 2, Box 610, Tunkhannock, PA 18657. Phone; 717-333-4445) before the meeting of the CPAC on 03-12-95. At the March 12, 1995 meeting of the CPAC the document will be discussed article by article. The second reading of the proposed revision will take place and the members present will vote on the proposed revision of the by-laws.

Wally Casazza, Secretary/Treasurer, reported that there are, at the present time, 41 single, 25 family and 5 junior memberships in the club. Counting family memberships as 2 members, there are presently 96 members in the CPAC.

MDW asked if anyone has come forward to take charge of the pigeon show that could take place on the Saturday of the CPAC's fall auction. No one, it appears, has come forward. Craig Russell said that a former member of the CPAC, Bill Romanowsky, may be that person. It was moved (R. Casazza) and seconded (Richardson) that if no one comes forward by the time of the CPAC Spring Show that there will not be a Fall Pigeon Show. The motion carried.

The question was asked: Should the CPAC Spring Show be held in someone's honor or memory. After some discussion, it was agreed to hold the Spring Show in honor of Tom Crittenden and in memory of Cyril Menges. The question of establishing a plaque, to be hung in the poultry building on the Bloomsburg Fairgrounds, in memory of deceased members of the CPAC was brought up. After some discussion, it was decided to table that question for the time being.

Wally C. reported that there are enough coop tags for this year's Spring Show.

Robert Powell said that he would have the Clifton Smith Memorial Trophy plaques updated and asked if anyone present knew of previous winners of the Clifton Smith Memorial Trophy. Wally said that Roger Voter won it in 1992 on a standard Dominique cock. Don Emery also won it in recent years. What year? On what bird?

Robert Powell volunteered to do a write-up of the Spring Show for POULTRY PRESS. Wally C. said that Briget Kane had told him that Bill Wulff will be present at this year's CPAC show and that will make it very convenient for persons at the show to place display ads in POULTRY PRESS about the show. The news that Bill Wulff plans to show at and attend the CPAC Spring Show was warmly and enthusiastically received by the members.

What about trios at the Spring Show? It was agreed that there will be classes for bantam and standard trios and that the trios will not be cooped in a separate section of the building. Rather, they will be cooped with their breed: the two females in one cage and the male in an adjoining cage. The birds in the trios will be part of the open show. One of the females in a trio of standard Barred Rocks, for example, could be named Champion American.

Wilma Smith will be in charge of the Chinese Auction. Her address and phone number are as follows: 78 South Second Street, Hughesville, PA 17737-1708, 717-584-2611. Donations of all kinds are needed for the Chinese Auction. Contact Wilma if you have something to donate.

Specials are needed for the Spring Show.

The deadline for specials to be received by Carl Harris is March 10th. SRP said that he would include in the February NEWSLETTER a form to be filled out by members to place specials at the show. Such a form was included in last February's CPAC NEWSLETTER.

Wally gave the following report on some of the awards for the Spring Show: the award for champion standard chicken, bantam chicken, waterfowl, bird shown by a junior, trio, Guinea Fowl, Turkey will be a picture puzzle of the winning bird in question. The winning bird in a class, provided there are 10 or more birds in that class, will be photographed and that photograph will be made into a picture puzzle. The reserve champion in each class will be awarded a hand-painted plate by artist Don Emery. There will be $260 in cash awards by the CPAC. Rosettes will be awarded for Best of Breed if there are 10 in that breed.

The judges for this year's show will be Daniel Dysart, Tom Kane and Darrell Sheraw. MDW asked that anyone who is interested in clerking at the show should contact him before the show.

Junior Show Superintendent, Seth Harris, requested that a separate list of junior exhibitors be drawn up by the show secretary. Junior exhibitors are those persons 16 years of age or younger. President Whitebread reported that Dr. Richard Langenbach (Altamont, NY), an ABA licensed judge and a CPAC member, has volunteered to conduct a junior showmanship class at the Spring Show. The membership enthusiastically welcomed the offer and asked MDW to contact Dr. Langenbach and report that the CPAC would be very pleased to have such a class at the Spring Show.

Betty Harris said that she would take charge of the food stand at the auction and show provided that the food stand was moved back to the corner where it has always been. The CPAC accepted her offer. Rose Casazza said that she would help in the food stand. Donations of food items are needed as are cash donations. Rose Casazza said that she would make some soup. Rose reported that Briget Kane will make some meat-less soup if we need it. Betty Harris said that Seth could probably be talked into making some of his famous grilled cheese sandwiches.

The show hall will be open at 4:00 P.M. on the Friday before the auction to receive auction and show birds. MDW said that we will have to draw up a detailed list of jobs to be done and names of persons who will perform those tasks. It was reiterated that there will be a 50¢ fee per bird charge, to be collected before the auction, for every bird in the auction on which a minimum bid sale amount is established.

It was regularly moved (Keeler) and seconded (Russell) that the CPAC purchase a bull horn for use at the club's auctions and shows.

MDW reminded all that all auction birds have to be blood tested.

Wally reported that the Lycoming County Fair will take place this year from July 13 to 23. He also reported that the CPAC has a poultry library and that any junior member in the club can borrow books from that library through the mail. All they have to do is agree to pay the shipping charges. Wally will handle the lending library and junior members who are interested in availing themselves of this service are to contact Wally Casazza.

Craig Russell said that he has the original copy of the CPAC's charter.

MDW announced that the next meeting of the CPAC will take place on March 12th at 1:00 P.M. Wally and Rose Casazza volunteered to host the meeting at their house in Bloomsburg.

With no further business to conduct, the meeting was adjourned at 3:30 P.M.

At the conclusion of the meeting, refreshments were served by Carl, Betty and Seth Harris. The members were then invited to have a look at the birds and animals owned by Carl, Betty and Seth Harris.

Respectfully submitted,

S. Robert Powell

SEBRIGHTS

The Sebright bantam, it is a well known fact, was created in England, circa 1800, by Sir John Sebright.

In an article entitled, "Bargain or Blunder," (ARTnews, November 1994, pp. 130-135) by Paul Jeromack, it is stated that a painting entitled, "An Allegory of Virtue," by Antonio Allegri (better known as Correggio), a painting that was recently acquired by the National Galleries of Scotland in Edinburgh, was in the nineteenth century in the collection of Sir Thomas Sebright at Beechwood. The painting was sold at the Sebright sale at Christie's in 1937.

One wonders if Sir John Sebright and Sir Thomas Sebright were related?

STANDARD MODERN GAMES

In the 01-25-95 NEWSLETTER (p. 4) we reported some information on standard Modern Games from John Rebhahn, Syracuse, NY. In his letter to the Editor of 2/2/95, John Rebhahn reported the following additional information on standard Moderns: "... Frank Fay's father, Elford, raised pit games until the late 1920's. Frank's mother didn't like the kind of people that were hanging around, so she made Frank's father get rid of the pit games.

Then Frank and his father went to Saint Catherine's, Ontario, Canada, to buy birds. These birds were imported from England a short time before Frank's father got them. Frank's father also got birds from Fermigere (sp.?) and Elliot from (?) Canada. Frank Fay is now 90 years old, so the family has been with poultry for a long time. I have an old poultry paper, dating from 1889, that has an ad in it for pit games from the Fays... " Briget Kane will mail out, on March 20th, the catalogues for the CPAC's Spring Show. Everyone in the club, of course, will receive a catalogue in the mail.

But there are MANY other poultry enthusiasts who will want to receive one of our catalogues so that they can enter birds in our show on May 7th. If you know of someone who you think should receive a CPAC show catalogue, send that person's name and address to Briget Kane right now. Briget's address is as follows:

DECEMBER 1993

SPECIALS

By S. Robert Powell

Poultry show catalogues invariably contain a list of "specials" that are offered at a particular club's show.

What is a special? Who sponsors specials? How do you do so? What is the effect of sponsoring a special? What should you do if you win a special?

A special is a prize, monetary or otherwise, that is offered by an individual or organization at a particular poultry show. For example: "$10 for the best Female Bantam shown by a junior exhibitor" or "$10 for the Best Standard B. B. Red Modern Game" or "Trophy for Reserve Champion Standard."

Specials can be offered by a wide variety of individuals and organizations. When meets by the APA and/or ABA are held in conjunction with a poultry club's show, that club invariably offers specials for all the show champions and the champions of all of the classes of poultry established by the APA and/or the ABA. (Those ABA and APA classes, it must be remembered, are what provide the coherent structural and organizational backbone of the show itself.) Some examples of specials put up by a poultry club for the various APA and ABA classes and for the champions of the show might be: "$10 and a Trophy for Best American" or "Trophy for Reserve Rose Comb Clean Legged" or "$25 and Trophy for Grand Champion of the Show."

The APA and/or the ABA, in addition, offer a wide variety of specials at shows at which meets of those organizations are held. Those specials are in the form of Best of Breed ribbons, medals, certificates, plaques, master exhibitor points, starred wins, and so on, which are awarded to members of the APA in accordance with clear guidelines established by those organizations.

Poultry clubs, other than the one sponsoring a given show, also offer specials at another club's show: "$10 for the Best Cochinchina Bantam, offered by the ABC Poultry Club at the XYZ Poultry Club's show."

Breed clubs, in addition, also offer specials at shows at which their club meets are held: "$10 for the Champion Standard Plymouth Rock, offered by the Plymouth Rock Fancier's Club." In some instances, one must be a member of the breed club sponsoring the special in order to win the special. In other instances, the specials are awarded to the winners, whether or not they are members of the breed club.

Individual club members of the club sponsoring the show also offer specials. Membership on the club sponsoring the show, however, is not, in most instances, a prerequisite for offering a special at that club's show. The primary requirement is that you are interested in offering a special. Virtually all clubs are more than delighted to accept specials put up by one and all. I have never heard of a club turning down a special from anyone.

What is the intent of a special? In many instances, poultry clubs put up specials to attract exhibitors to show their birds at a given show by offering an incentive (money, trophy, rosette or whatever) to do so. A wide range of specials put up by a club frequently causes exhibitors to show lots of birds at the club's show, which means a big show with good competition.

Individuals and breed clubs frequently put up specials to promote particular breeds and to encourage breeders of those breeds to show their birds. One can easily imagine the effect of offering a $500 cash special, say, for "Best Plymouth Rock Bantam." Were such a special put up by someone at a given show, the club would probably have to hire an extra judge just to do the Plymouth Rock bantams.

Specials are also offered to memorialize or to honor a particular individual or to commemorate an event: "$10 for Champion American, in memory of the Late and Great APA Judge, Dan Bristol" (if the Person is still alive, the special is put up, "In honor of...") or $10 for the Best Standard of the Columbian Variety, to Commemorate the Centennial of the Naming of the variety."

The sky is the limit when it comes to specials. You put up the special and you can determine what show winner is awarded that prize. Specials are a great way for many people to get involved in a show. If you have never put up a special, do so now. It's good for the poultry club sponsoring the show, it's good for the fancy in general, and it will make you feel good, knowing that you are actively promoting exhibition poultry.

If you are interested in placing a special at a club's show, don't wait until two weeks before the show and expect to get the special listed in the show catalogue. Contact the show secretary or the secretary of the breed club or organization sponsoring a meet at a given show several months in advance so that your special can be included in the show catalogue when printed. When specials are received by the show secretary too late to be included in the catalogue, they are usually posted in the show hall on the day or days of the show.

What should you do if you win a special? First of all, you must thank the person (a member of the club sponsoring the show or a representative of a breed club, in most instances) who hands you the special. If it's a cash special, it usually comes in a sealed envelope on which is written not only the name of the person or organization offering the special but also your name. Most cash specials are given out as soon as classes in question are judged. Sometimes they are handed out at the ceremony at the end of the show. If the special is a trophy, it is usually handed out during the ceremony at the close of the show.

You should, in addition, thank the person or organization who put up the special. Don't just tear open the envelope (if it's a cash special) and put the money in your pocket and call it a day. Don't just take the trophy, for example, and walk away without thanking the person or organization who put up the trophy. Usually the person who put up a special or a representative of the organization that put up the special is at the show. Find that person and thank him and/or his organization for putting up the special. If you can't find him at the show, mail a note of thanks when you get home.

Remember, individuals and organizations don't have to put up specials. They do so because they want to, and because they have. They must be thanked. While you're at it, don't forget to thank, at the end of the show, the show secretary and the show management (1) for their dedication and hard work and (2) for sponsoring the show in question. Don't just pack up your birds and head home without thanking the people who made the show possible. Remember, poultry clubs don't have to sponsor shows. They do so because they want to, and because they do, must be thanked by all of us for their dedication and hard work.

Dear Ms. Fleming:

Thank you for your recent letter and your kind words of appreciation of the birds that I showed at the Wayne County Fair.

At this time of year, I don't have any birds for sale. I would think that the best thing for you to do if you are interested in getting started with poultry would be to buy some chicks. There are several very good places that you can buy from: see enclosed clippings. In order to ensure that the chicks stay warm enough during shipping, most places recommend that you buy at least 25. Buying chicks through the mail is a fairly straightforward process and the chicks almost always arrive in very good condition.

There is a BIG poultry auction in Bloomsburg, PA on May 6th, beginning at 9 A.M. The auction takes place in the Poultry Building on the Fairgrounds there. The auction goes on for most of the day.

There is a very good poultry newspaper called POULTRY PRESS that is published monthly. It contains lots of articles and ads and virtually everyone who is involved with exhibition poultry subscribes to it. It costs $14 a year. (POULTRY PRESS, P. O. Box 542, Connersville, IN 47331).

Best of luck to you. I'm sorry that I don't have any birds for sale right now. Later on in the year I very probably will have some.

Sincerely,

S. Robert Powell

Dear Robert,

I've meant to speak with you about this before, but it kept slipping my mind. (As do many things) Have we in essence formed a partnership with the RI Reds?

If so, perhaps we should discuss future plans regarding breeding, showing, culling etc. I thought I should bring this to your attention. At the very least I feel we should think it over. I'm extremely pleased the birds are doing well.

Best Regards

Tracheitis infection plagues Delmarva poultry

More than 300 Delmarva poultry flocks have been infected with laryngotracheitis (LT), a deadly viral respiratory infection of the trachea.

"We consider it to be a very serious challenge to the poultry industry on the Delmarva," says Bill Satterfield of Delmarva Poultry Industry. The number of cases is subsiding from the peak in late November and early December, perhaps because of prevention measures taken, he notes.

The industry responded rapidly with tightened biosecurity and vaccination programs. Satterfield adds that this strain is more virulent than one that hit the region in the late 1980s.

The condition is less severe in Pennsylvania but more chronic, particularly in the southeastern region, say state poultry experts.

LT, or "trach," may cause birds to cough up blood. Birds often die of suffocation, says Bill Weaver, a poultry scientist at Penn State. The disease does not affect humans.

"If the birds are sick, you need to get a positive diagnosis," Weaver stresses. Call the service person for your contractor, or get sick birds to an animal diagnostic lab.

Preventing infection. You prevent the spread of LT like any other poultry disease, including avian influenza: biosecurity. Advise Weaver and Satterfield:

- Stay out of other people's flocks, and keep them out of your flocks. The virus is usually transmitted by people or equipment.

If people must enter your poultry house, make sure they follow sound biosecurity measures. And find out if any equipment they bring has been properly cleaned and disinfected.

- Don't congregate with other poultry growers. If you do, don't wear your chickenhouse clothes and shoes. Change clothes before you return to the chickenhouse.

- Don't remove and spread manure immediately after a flock is diagnosed. Typically, you should deep-stack manure and let it heat to kill the virus before spreading.

- Discuss a vaccination program with a lab or your contractor.

"Each case is different," explains Sherrill Davison, a poultry specialist at University of Pennsylvania's New Bolton Center. "We've learned through experience whether to tell them to vaccinate or not."

Pullets may be vaccinated twice. Broilers are usually not vaccinated unless there's an outbreak because the vaccine can curb weight gain and may cause a reaction.

Because it's a virus, there is no treatment for infected birds.

Exotics warning. Eastern poultry producers' latest scare only reemphasizes the need to keep poultry flocks away from all sorts of birds, reports Edward Mallinson, poultry extension veterinarian at University of Maryland. That includes exotic birds, wild waterfowl, seabirds, backyard chicken flocks, pheasants and ratties.

While laryngotracheitis is common to backyard chicken flocks, it isn't usually a devastating disease. But introduced into commercial flocks, mortality rates has reached 20 percent, adds this veterinarian.

But that's the case with most avian diseases. Carrier species may appear to be healthy; but they can pass devastating diseases onto poultry flocks. That's the case with avian influenza, mycoplasma, and the Newcastle virus.

Long-legged influenza threat. Ostriches, emus and rheas (all ratties) are becoming popular farm "critters" in the eastern United States. And because of breeding stock shortages, they frequently are transported great distances.

Influenza viruses, subtypes H5 and H7, were recently recovered from infected ratties in different areas of the United States, including Maryland, says Mallinson. They also can carry numerous causative agents of other poultry diseases.

Avian tuberculosis, also transmissible to humans, has also been found in ratties, he adds. "The bottom line is that commercial poultry should be isolated from all other birds. It's good business and good common sense." □

MAYBE POLISH ARE ITALIAN?

By S. Robert Powell

The facts presented in John Norris' column, Poultryana, in the January 1995 issue of POULTRY PRESS (pp. 18-19) and those in the description of Polish in the APA's THE AMERICAN STANDARD OF PERFECTION (1985, p. 147) constitute sufficient evidence to support effectively the proposition that standard Polish fowl originated in Italy. We will reiterate here the relevant facts presented in those texts and support the hypothesis that standard Polish fowl originated in Italy with (1) compelling linguistic evidence, and (2) informed conclusions deduced from the well-known history of the ancient Romans and from the commercial history of western and eastern Europe.

In John Norris' column, first of all, we learn that birds that resemble our present-day Polish are described by ancient Roman writers, and that an ancient Roman statue exists of a hen with a full crest and a small divided comb much like today's Polish. Norris cites Professor Alesandro Ghigi's POULTRY FARMING AS DESCRIBED BY THE WRITERS OF ANCIENT ROME, in which Ghigi documents the existence of such crested birds in Roman texts from the second century B. C. to the fourth century A.D. Among the writers quoted by Ghigi are Varro, Cato, Columella and Palladius. The physiological descriptions of those Roman crested birds (birds with a large protuberance on top of the skull from which a crest of feathers grows), as well as the extant statue of such a bird from the same historical period, suggested to Ghigi, and his point appears to be well taken, that these ancient Roman crested birds are the ancestors of our present-day Polish.

What linguistic evidence can be advanced to support Professor Ghigi's hypothesis? In the American Poultry Association's description of Polish chickens we read the following: "On the Continent of Europe the name 'Padoue' is applied to crested breeds." "Padoue" is the French noun and adjective for "Padua" and "Paduan," respectively. Significantly, John Norris remarks in his column that in the early English poultry books one sees references to "The Paduan" or Polish fowl. Padua, of course, is a city in northeastern Italy. The linguistic evidence suggests, therefore, that ancient Roman birds, from Padua and vicinity, could be the direct ancestors of our present-day Polish.

But how did crested chickens from northeastern Italy make their way to western Europe (France, certainly) and eastern Europe (Poland, among other places)? Most probably through the direct and indirect Romanization of Europe by the ancient Romans at the time of the Empire. It is a well known fact, it is interesting to note here, that the Dorking, a breed that we now call "English" (the breed takes its name from the old town of Dorking in Surrey), is an ancient Roman breed of poultry that was taken into Great Britain by the Romans under Julius Caesar. Descriptions of what we now call Dorkings, like descriptions of what we now call Polish, can be found in the writings of the ancient Roman writer Columella.

The crested chickens that were taken by the Romans to western Europe were called "Padoue," which suggests that they were recognized there as originating in Padua. The Roman crested chickens that found their way to eastern Europe, it seems, came to be recognized, erroneously, as indigenous, if not by the Polish people themselves (one wonders what such crested fowl are called in the earliest Polish histories), at least by the Dutch, who imported such birds into the Netherlands and who subsequently created the White Crested Black Polish bantam. (From the 1988 edition of the ABA's THE BANTAM STANDARD, p. 151, we learn that the Polish bantam, except for the White Crested Black, was created in England.)

How did the crested birds that we now call Polish make their way to England? Through two routes. In his column, John Norris suggests that the first such birds were imported into England through the Netherlands, which is perhaps why such birds were sometimes called "Crested Dutch" by the English. (The English surely called them Dutch for the same reason that the Dutch probably called them Polish. In both instances they were named after the place from which they were imported.) The English also called such birds "Poland fowl," a name which indicates, as we have said, the place of origin of those birds for the Dutch. But, given the regular commerce between Great Britain and France for much of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, such crested birds undoubtedly also made their way to England through France, where they were called "Padoue," which is surely why the English sometimes called such crested birds "Paduan fowl," a name which, it is our hypothesis, accurately reflects the place of origin of such birds, namely, Padua, in Italy.

"Crested Dutch" and "Polish" are, it seems, misnomers. The Netherlands and Poland are, to be sure, important intermediary lands with which Paduan fowl, our present-day Polish, were directly associated in their history. But neither the Netherlands nor Poland is where, it seems very probable, such birds originated. Physiological descriptions of ancient Roman crested birds and extant artistic evidence led Professor Ghigi to believe that ancient Roman crested birds are the ancestors of our present-day Polish. Informed conclusions deduced from the well-known history of the ancient Romans and from the commercial history of western and eastern Europe, together with persuasive linguistic evidence, presented here, support Professor Ghigi's hypothesis that what we now call Polish fowl originated in Italy.

THE CAMPAIGN FOR SUSTAINABLE AGRICULTURE

12 N. Church St., Goshen, NY 10924, (914)294-0633, Fax: (914)294-0632

March 1995

Dear Family Farmer:

We are writing with great urgency to ask you to join farmers and citizens across the nation in demanding farm policies that support family farming and sustainable agriculture.

Federal farm policy is biased against sustainable agriculture. Research and extension programs underemphasize low cost sustainable agriculture practices.

USDA does little to develop new markets that enable farmers to capture a larger share of consumer dollars by selling higher value products. Yet it spends billions to export cheap commodities.

Federal farm programs do little to reward environmental stewardship or to strengthen family-size farms. Rather, they penalize crop rotation and reward large scale production.

The 1995 farm bill presents a critical opportunity to redirect farm policy, but only if we make our voices heard. Please return the coupon below, so we can let you know when your letter or call to Congress will make a difference.

The Campaign for Sustainable Agriculture has brought together family farmers, environmentalists, consumers and concerned citizens to advance the following objectives:

* Place greater emphasis on sustainable agriculture in research and extension programs. Protect the Sustainable Agriculture Research and Education Program and stewardship incentive programs from disproportionate funding cuts.

* Protect family farms with moderate-size crop bases from future cuts in farm programs and work for a fair price in the market. Decrease farm program costs by reducing payments to large farms and high income investors.

(Please turn to the back page.)

Campaign for Sustainable Agriculture

* Reduce farm program restrictions that penalize crop rotation. Create incentives for stewardship practices such as filter strips along streams, habitat for beneficial insects, grass end-rows, restored wetlands, etc.

* Redirect federal marketing programs to place greater emphasis on creating new markets for sustainable farms.

* Maintain a "meaner and leaner" Conservation Reserve Program (CRP) focused on the most sensitive land and enhancing water quality and wildlife habitat. Provide incentives for conservation of land leaving the CRP and assist beginning farmers in renting or buying it.

We hope you will join with us in fighting for a common sense farm bill. Over 500 farm, environmental, food and other organizations have joined together in the Campaign for Sustainable Agriculture in support of family farm agriculture and farmer friendly approaches to resource stewardship.

We can succeed in redirecting federal farm policy, but only with your help. Ultimately, political power comes down to the grassroots. Large numbers of outspoken citizens remain the key ingredient in changing Washington.

Please take a few minutes to indicate how you would be willing to help on the self-addressed coupon below. Clip it, attach a 32 cent stamp and drop it in the mail.

Thank you for helping.

Sincerely,

Chuck Hassebrook

Hal Hamilton

P.S. There is no more powerful force than active citizens. When large numbers speak out, the power of money pales in comparison. Please do not set this letter aside without responding.

- ☐ Let me know when I can help. I am willing to:
- ☐ Be on a telephone tree to get quick calls to Congress.
  - ☐ Write letters to members of Congress.
  - ☐ Write letters to the editors of newspapers and magazines.
  - ☐ Invite friends and neighbors to make their voices heard.

☐ Please send more information on your proposals.

Dear Cousin Ronald:

Earlier this evening, I was organizing some Griswold Reunion papers and, in embarrassed disbelief, came across a folder entitled: "Checks for 1994 Griswold Reunion deposit." Your check, #5253 for $50, was among the checks in the folder. Please accept my apologies for not having deposited your check in August 1994. Shall I deposit the check now? Perhaps you have stopped payment on the check? Unless you tell me not to, I will deposit your check on March 20th.

Without the generous financial support of family members such as yourself, it would be difficult, if not impossible, to continue to conduct the annual reunion and to publish the NEWSLETTER. Your help is very much appreciated.

Sincerely,

FLYING TIPPLER ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA BULLETIN

March 15, 1995

Interim
S. Robert Powell, Secretary
RD #1, Box 40
Carbondale, PA 18407-9706

FROM THE INTERIM SECRETARY

Here is the first issue of the FTA BULLETIN for 1995. Among the very interesting items herein are: (1) the results of the election of officers and directors of the FTA for 1995-1996 (pp. 2-3); (2) Jerry O'Rourke's 1994 Annual Report (pp. 4-8); letters and communications from the members (pp. 9-12); and a reprint, courtesy of Smail Basic, of two articles about Tipplers from an old issue of the APJ (p. 13).

Given the unavoidable tardiness of the Secretary in going to press with this issue of the BULLETIN, it seems prudent to announce, PROVISIONALLY, the PROPOSED 1995 FTA fly schedule. I have come up with this schedule, based on the dates for the flys in 1994. What follows is not, to be sure, an official statement of the fly schedule. The next issue of the BULLETIN will contain an official statement of the schedule. What follows is to be regarded as a guide in getting your birds ready for the Spring and Summer flys.

PROPOSED 1995 FTA Fly Schedule

Spring Series: April 22/23; May 6/7; May 20/21.

Summer Series: June 3/4; June 17/18 (Long Day fly); July 1/2.

Fall Series: Sept. 16/17; Sept. 30/Oct. 1; Oct. 14/15; Oct. 28/29 (Stock fly).

WHERE SHOULD WE ADVERTISE?

Given the demise of the AMERICAN PIGEON JOURNAL, the FTA no longer has an ad in a regularly published national/international publication which makes it possible for potential members of the FTA to contact us.

This situation, it seems to me (SRP) must be corrected or the FTA will no longer continue to acquire new members on a regular basis.

Thanks to Richard Kehrer and Jerry O'Rourke, I have the following information about three pigeon publications that might be good candidates for the FTA's monthly ad:

PIGEON FANCIER, Post Office Box 694, Colton, CA 92324. $28 per year.

PIGEON DEBUT, Post Office Box 271026, Oklahoma City, OK 73137. $18 a year.

PIGEON DIGEST, Post Office Box 3341, S. W. 49th, Oklahoma City, OK 73119. $18 per year.

Are there any others? Where shall we place our monthly ad in which is given the name and address of the Treasurer of the FTA? If you have an opinion on this matter, contact Tim Kvidera (13610 Johnson Street, NE, Anoka, MN 55304. Phone: 612-755-7983) or Walter Wiehceh (105 Clay Street, Buffalo, NY 14207. Phone: 716-873-0497).

SUMMARY OF 1994 ANNUAL REPORT

After three years of ever increasing participation in our fly competitions, 1994 saw a downward spiral. Our numbers were down in all catagories:

Year	Flys Reports Requested	Flys Entered	Amount
1991	37	24	$ 56.00
1992	86	67	149.50
1993	101	68	158.00
1994	81	46	123.00

There were some great flies in 1994 particularly in the Spring II fly which saw 8 members all flying their birds over 8 hours. O. Zovich topped the field with a 15:26 fly in Official Time. He was closely followed by L. Kapac with a 14:26. Harry Smith's birds turned in a 12:47 and Herb Keay had a 11:40 fly. In the Honor System, same fly, Hamid Ahmadi had the best overall time with a 15:32 and Rich Kehrer was right behind him with a nice 15:01 fly. Our former Secretary, Stan Ogozalek, flew his birds for 12:34 and I, as Central Timer, turned in a 10:41 mark. Garry Hulst had a 06:38; Andy Fuller, our Junior member had a respectable time of 5:51 and newcomer to our Club, Joe Russo finished off with 3:33. (He bettered this mark in later flies.) This was a spirited fly competition. It is too bad that they are not all like this one.

In Young bird competition, the Summer III fly, Smail Basic continues to dominate with a great fly of 12:46 in the Official System, while our President, Tim Kvidera, won the Honor fly in the same Series with a mark of 11:18. Joe Russo won the Fall II Series, Any Age birds, with a time of 11:35. He also won the Fall III Series with an even 08:00 fly. Joe also won the Aggregate Award in Honor System with 6 flys for 38:07 hours while Herb Keay won the Official Aggregate Award with 2 flys of 19:00 hours. There was a grand total of 283 hours and 53 minutes flown by all our competitors.

I am now in the process of putting together a Listing of the 20 Best Times flown overall in the Young Bird Series to distinguish it from the Old Bird Series. To do it properly, I will also have to make a Listing of the ANY Age Bird Series. Then I will put it all together and have a Overall Listing of the 20 Best Times flown in the history of the FTA. This is an undertaking, but a worthy one. Smail Basic has pointed out many times that Young birds deserve their own place in the Listings and should not be grouped with Old Birds. He is absolutely right. I have resisted doing so for some time because I felt that too many Listings make for boring reading and are, therefore, useless. However, Smail has convinced me that it is right and necessary, and, with that in mind, I will be happy to comply with his wishes and those of my fellow members.

My sincere thanks to those members who participated in our fly competitions, and those members for their help and support given to me over the past years.

You probably get tired of hearing me say it over and over again, but this is your Club, and in order to maintain a healthy and viable organization more of our members must participate in the Club's activities. If everyone sits back and just reads the Bulletin, you will soon have no Bulletin to read for there will be no news to report. Come on fellow members, become more active in the FTA in 1995,

Jerry O'Bourke

LETTERS AND COMMENTS FROM HERE AND THERE

STAN SEIBEL to Walter Wiechec (12-11-94): "... Right now I have 18 Flying Tiplers and three Turbits. I sold 8 birds last month locally. Not many Tippler men around here. The closest member is Dick Seabridge, from whom I got my birds in the early 80's. They fly great at times. I don't have them trained good at all. Don't take the time. I have birds for sale if you know anyone interested." Stan's address is as follows: 287 Heckman Street, Phillipsburg, NJ 08865.

SIA MALEKNASRI to Walter Wiechec (12-07-1994): "... I would like to take this opportunity to thank you and other officers of the FTA for doing an excellent job of informing and teaching beginners like myself all about Tiplers. In addition, I'd like to thank members such as Bob Rugaber and Ali Rajabnik, who with their generosity, help beginners start with the proper knowledge base and the right birds. Thanks to Bob, I bred excellent birds this year and they performed superbly."

RALPH BRITT to Walter Wiechec (12-02-1994): "... The hawks came early this year. They arrived November 23. The latest was Christmas day. Fortunately they didn't catch any Tiplers."

TIM KVIDERA (02-13-1995): "... Should have put Tiplers together last weekend but weather too cold and I've been traveling too much to figure out how I want to pair them up. Will have to in the next week or so if want to fly the young bird contests in June..."

ANTON VAN DALEN (02-06-95) to SRP: "... My Tiplers are flown from my roof on our Manhattan (New York City) home. The original stock were from Les Brozyna and Stanley Ogozalek."

RICHARD R. KEHRER to Walter Wiechec: "... Birds are well, not flying any now. Wish I was."

TIM KVIDERA to SRP (11-15-1994): "... One of my past (couple of months ago now) business trips included weekend in New Jersey/Long Island and a bit of Tippling. Plan to do a few paragraphs on the visiting for the BULLETIN, but don't hold up anything waiting for it. Had a great time, as usual, at the National Young Bird Show in Louisville. Had a chance to spend a few hours with Oskar, Wally and Murray and briefly met David Fuller and Gary Hulst."

E. I. TERANCHI to Walter Wiechec (07-05-1994): "... I moved back to Colorado a year ago and am finally getting around to sending my 1994 membership dues. Because of work, I am not able to keep any birds right now but want to stay in touch with the FTA and the Newsletter."

BOB RUGABER (12-30-94): "...In 1995, I'll breed from 12 pairs."

DALE E. PETERS (12-28-1994): "... I have two electric heaters in the loft and my best birds are on eggs."

SILVESTER TOWNSEND to Walter Wiechec (01-08-1995): "... You continue to do a very good job, Keep up the good work."

From CHET KAPA

In his letter of 01-27-95 to Walter Wiechec, Chet Kapa states: "... Sure had a time with the Goshawks and Coopers Hawks this past summer. But I was able to fly the birds, got up to 6 hours. Not too bad for being on regular feed and flying every morning. I was able to find three hens of the Dale Peters breeding to go along with the 5 cocks Dale sold me. I'm hoping for a better flying time this 1995 season. I'm still hoping to get a couple hens from Dale. This year, I'm going to fly the Tiplers separate from my Birmingham Rollers..."

SHOW YOUR BIRDS

In his letter of 12-06-1994 to SRP, Richard Kehrher writes:

"...Show your birds in pigeon shows! You never know who you might meet or what you might see. I have been going to one pigeon show for four years and now I enjoy it very much. I have met some nice pigeon fanciers, and through one of them, I got to see some very old Tippler books, one of the oldies was "The Tippler Pigeon" (1909) and some old letters about Tipplers from the period 1930-1940. I was also given an old copy of the American Flying Tippler Club's rules. I don't know how old it is, but it is neat to have it. It might be as old as 1925. You never know what you might see at a pigeon show..."

From BOB RUGABER

In his letter to SRP of 12-09-94, Bob Rugaber states: "...Like you, I have been a regular subscriber of the AMERICAN PIGEON JOURNAL since the mid 50's and I really miss it! I know I had another year to go on my subscription when it stopped coming. I keep expecting someone to buy it out and start the press rolling again.

I have had real good reports from three club members who are flying my (Murray Gaskins) birds: Ralph Britt, Bill Murphy and Sia Maleknaski). All report 10 hours on a regular basis for young birds. They all say the birds fly very high. I get good time but not as high, so it might be something I do--feed or location. Murray sent me new very high flying blood to use in 1995...."

ONTARIO TIPPLER UNION

FTA member, HARRY J. SMITH, is also the Secretary of the Ontario Tippler Union. Our thanks to him for sending a copy of the 1995 OTU membership list. About 1/3 of the members of the OTU are also members of the FTA. It's good to know that there are Tippler enthusiasts who are involved in the sport to the extent that they are members of two Flying Tippler organizations.

From UDO BEGERT

In his letter of 01-08-95 to Walter Wiechec, Udo Begert remarks: "... The Polish Highflyers are really flying well now in the winter. In the summer when they are raising youngsters, they tend to be on the lazy side. I also was able to get a pair of self white Danzig High-flyers. I will be flying their youngsters in the spring and summer..."

From ANTON VAN DALEN

On 12-03-1994, Anton van Dalen wrote to SRP as follows: "Thank you for the November BULLETIN. It is always a great day when the paper arrives. I have enclosed my nominations and filled it out to the best of my knowledge. A number of the names are Tippler men I have met and learned from. Stan Ogozalek is the person where many of my birds came from. He also inspires with great knowledge and enthusiasm. Oskar I have visited and spoken with on the phone more than once. Howard I have had over to our house and in my Manhattan rooftop Tippler coop. His writing about Tipplers for the pigeon magazines makes him a most important Tippler friend. He writes with great ability and I always enjoy reading him. Even his comments in the fly reports are always very personal, interesting, and to the point. If he is interested in being Publicity Director, he would do a valuable job. Best wishes, Anton."

IF YOU MOVE, TELL US

Don't forget to notify the FTA's Secretary if you move. Otherwise, you will not receive the BULLETIN. Every time that an issue of the BULLETIN is mailed, at least one copy comes back to the Secretary with the Post Office's stamp, "Moved. Left no forwarding address," on it. If you don't want to miss one or more issues of the BULLETIN, send the FTA your new address in a timely manner.

From CHET KAPA

In his letter of 06-23-1994 to Walter Wiechec, Chet Kapa states: "... I'm looking to buy the Flying Blue Bar Grizzle with the crown. I hope this doesn't throw you. I had these about 10 years ago. I gave a pair to a youngster in the 4-H. He won first place for a couple years with them. Of course, I flew them. But you would think a man over 60 years old would be wise. Well, I did not keep any stock birds confined. As a result, I lost them all in a storm. It was a cloudless sky at 6 A.M. But at 7:30 A.M. we had an awfully hard rain storm, which lasted for an hour and there were very high winds also. I still have one Blue Bar Grizzle, with the clean head. Also in that lost kit of birds were my chucks and the White Print Barred.

Since then, I have bought a few here and there. But they DO NOT have the wings, which is why I will not bother to breed. But I did buy 5 cocks from Dale Peters of Ludington, Michigan. These birds have the best wings I have seen in 60 years of flying Tiplers. These birds from Dale Peters are the Macclesfields. But there the problem, he has no hens to sell at the present time.

So it goes if you don't put a few pairs into a prisoner loft, you're asking for trouble.

Sure would appreciate some information on the Crown Blue Bar Grizzle and the Chucks and the White Print Bars.

At the present time, I am flying the Budapest Highflyers from Bela Kiss of the state of Massachussets. These birds can get out of sight in a hurry. Beautiful birds. Also fly the Brimingham Rollers, Joe Stayer of Olean, NY. Great flyers and good spinners. They will go out of sight also... Once in a while my mind goes back to the early 1930's. On Saturday mornings, the sky was full of Tiplers and Rollers. The neighborhood was 90% Polish people. What a sight to see the sky full of birds."

TIPPLERS WANTED IN LANDISBURG, PA

On 09-13-1994, Ervin Schalitsky (R. D. 1, Box 709, Landisburg, PA 17041. Phone: 717-789-4568) wrote to Walter Wiechec, as follows:

"I am a soon-to-be ex - Racing Homer fancier. I have flown with the Blue Mountain International Combine of Harrisburg, PA, but can no longer afford the time it takes, due to other responsibilities. I was born and raised in Baltimore and can remember from the neighborhood a man who had Tiplers and enjoyed them greatly, Mr. William Baer. I have been trying to avail to find some birds in the area to get a start with.

Please accept this request for information on the FTA and for the names and phone numbers of breeders in my area. I live approximately 15 miles north of Carlisle, PA in Perry County (about an hour from Harrisburg). The remainder of my Homers are slated for auction by the end of the month, and I would like to get into Tiplers and become a member ASAP. If you know of anyone who would buy or trade for them, I have nice delbar X demierst X Janssen & Wegge Homers."

From TOM TOSCANO

When Tom Toscano paid his dues for 1995, he enclosed the following note in his letter to Walter Wiechec:

"... I have read Udo Begert's problem with birds of prey. I know what he is going through. The summer of 1993, I lost 50 Tiplers in one day. Not only did I have hawk problems, I had Bald Eagles that were breeding near the Mongaup River Conservatory. This year, I built an 8 by 8 screen coop because I have about 100 Tiplers, Canadian High Flyers, Small Tippler Roller Caps, Short Faces. About a day after I built the screen coop, the hawks came down 3 times a day and hit the screen then hit the ground. They never got hurt. They just took off after I yelled. And this went on day after day. So I told my wife. We came up to the mountains from Manhattan to fly birds and we cannot do that because of the Hawks and Eagles. Eagles don't attack, so far, but the birds still look up with fright. So, Udo Begert, don't feel bad. Plus, the rats killed 28 pigeons in one week, until I found out how they were getting into the coop..."

From STANLEY OGOZALEK

In his letter of March 1995 to SRP, STANLEY OGOZALEK (23 Orchard Street, Keyport, NJ 07735) remarks: "... I still maintain the Gordon Hughes family of Tipplers with about 10 pairs of breeders and about 20 flyers to begin the new season with. Of course, that amount of flyers will be cut down as the season progresses as the birds show their true worth. I should think that there will be at least two kits of flyers: cocks and hens. I would like to fly a good team of cocks, but I'll settle for a good kit regardless of sex!

I had telephoned my friend Tom Dilks of England over the holidays and spoke with him about Tipplers etc. Someone had told me sometime ago that old Gordon Hughes had passed on but when I mentioned this to Tom, he said that it wasn't so, and that he spoke to Gordon not so long ago! Well, Tom still has a few pairs of the GH stock, though his main interest is with the Racing Homers and has been for some years now. He still manages to fly a kit or two and to help out the novices in the area with birds and sound training advice. Wish that he were here to help me with dark training of the kits! ...."

In his letter of 02-24-95 to Walter Wiechec, Jim Boyd (P. O. Box 442, Chesapeake City, MD 21915) remarks: "... I am not sure if I am going to stay, live, and work in the U.S.A. Maybe I can find a suitable job where I can contact some people who are interested in Flying Tipplers. I may stay even if I had no Tipplers of my own. I may be able to meet and help a senior citizen to stay in the sport..."

DEATH OF HERB KEAY

On 03-02-1995, Harry J. Smith (3105 Queen Frederica, Apt. 301, Mississauga, Ontario, Canada L4Y-3A5) wrote to SRP to report the death of FTA member, HERB KEAY.

He wrote: "Please be informed that on February 15, 1995, Herb Keay quietly passed away. He was a Tippler fancier and as well he was a member of the FTA. Also he was a valued friend and he will be missed.

Herb Keay's claim to fame was in 1960 when he flew a kit of three cocks over 17 hours and 28 minutes to break the then existing North American record. Unfortunately, he could only drop two birds in the required time. Hence, he was disqualified. What an end to a shot of glory.

Herb was a member of the Ontario Tippler Union for many years and was a keen competitor.

Many times a member of the FTA visited the Toronto area and Herb Keay's place was the spot to visit. The memory of our American friends sitting in Herb's spacious garden and sipping on a cold one will forever stay in my memory.

Have a safe flight Herb.

An Experience With Tiplers Not Soon Forgotten

By MIKE DeLATTÉ, New Orleans, La.

Note by Editor. — The author of this article, Mike DeLatté, was the youngest Junior Member of the Crescent Flying Tippler Club at the time of the experience that he relates here.

I had heard of the fabulous feats of the Tippler, a bird with the endurance to fly for hours if fed properly. I had just joined the Crescent Flying Tippler Club and did not have any stock as yet.

I offered my services to keep time for the race on March 22, 1970. It was about 5:30 a.m. when E. R. Hernandez picked me up to keep time for him. He said that his son Melvin would liberate the birds at 6:00 a.m.

Although it was partially dark and cloudy, there was enough light to see the birds. The team of three birds of the Lovatt strain were liberated exactly at 6:00 a.m. All three birds went into a wide circle around the loft.

At approximately 7:15 a.m. the clouds gave way to a huge blue space into which the team climbed high. The clouds closed in; the birds came down. There was a good north wind blowing, but the birds did not seem to mind.

About 11:00 a.m. Mr. Hernandez arrived home from timing someone else. He was surprised to see the team doing so well. The day before, the yellow bird had lost two primary and one secondary flights. By this time the clouds had blown south, and there was a clear blue sky. The way the Tiplers soared was something everyone should have seen. It seemed as though the team was master of the sky. This was one of the best times to see them. They were making small circles with a graceful wing stroke.

At about 2:00 p.m. Mr. Hernandez was counting the minutes. He wanted to break the record of the CFTC which was eight hours and twenty-two minutes, set by Don Plache's birds. The record was broken, and Mr. Hernandez said that since the birds had made it this far, they would go until dark.

Everything seemed to be going smoothly while Mr. Hernandez and I talked and watched the birds. We would watch the team climb and go off in large circles. Suddenly, at 4:25 p.m., the birds were making passes at the house as though they were going to land. The yellow funneled ten feet about the house, and started to drop. The two blacks swooped between the yellow and the roof of the house, seeming to carry her back to the large circles. The birds appeared to have picked up some reserve energy and flew with a lot more pep.

Later, Mr. Hernandez was worried about the birds coming down before night. The birds kept making large circles, not showing any weakness. At 5:50 p.m. the yellow landed on the roof with one of the blacks right behind her. The other black kept on flying. Mr. Hernandez ran to the loft quietly, so as not to frighten the two away, and released his white Fantail dropper. He then opened the door to his sun cage, releasing several birds. Three minutes later the remaining bird circled three or four times, and landed.

The birds were trapped within five minutes. Mr. Hernandez was thrilled with his team of Tiplers and went to them. The yellow bird had brought the birds down early the race before, however there were no harsh words towards her this time. Mr. Hernandez was so happy that he kissed each member of the trio. He said that the birds were from Perc Hagan's imported stock of eighteen-hour birds.

My only hope and ambition now is to share the happiness Mr. Hernandez enjoyed when his birds came in with a good time.

Training For Long Time Tippler Flying

By NELSON A. BALMER, Toronto, Ont., Canada

Note by Editor. — The following article by the late Nelson A. Balmer is being reprinted by a special request from the July 1948 issue of the American Pigeon Journal.

From time to time we have been requested for information on how to make a kit of Tiplers do a long time fly. The following, therefore, is our own experience in this very interesting sport.

In the first place, choose from three to six birds of your own best fliers. If they are old birds, they must be all of the same sex, but if young birds are chosen, it does not make any difference. Cocks or hens will fly equally well, although, our experience has been that, as a rule, hens will fly higher than cocks.

Put the birds you wish to train in a compartment by themselves so that you can feed them according to a rigid schedule. The usual size of this training coop is approximately three feet square and three feet high, but almost any size will do providing the birds have room to stretch their wings to exercise.

If the birds are in fair condition, put them on a diet consisting of equal parts barley and wheat. If they are fat, put them on straight barley for one week. Feed them one egg cupful per bird in a flat tray, and, after they have eaten their fill, take the tray away, with any feed left over, and give them a drink of water. Then put a tray containing grit before them for a short time. After 10 or 15 minutes, remove the grit tray and water container. This is all the feed they will need per day and is to be given at night. By the way, when feeding wheat and barley, feed the barley first and after it is cleaned up, feed the wheat. The birds prefer wheat to barley and if fed mixed, will eat the wheat and leave the barley.

The birds are to be flown every other day until sunset, then throw the droppers to signal them down. In training, they should fly from two to five hours, according to the type of Tippler and their condition. When the dropper is thrown, if the birds respond in a few minutes, you will know that they have had enough flying; however, if they take 15 or 20 minutes to get down, the next time they should be put out a half hour earlier. In this way you get to know their best training time.

Always fly the birds without food or water. This is the best way to get them in good, hard flying condition. When they have dropped after a work-out, let them settle down for about half an hour before feeding. Then give them the feed first and grit, and water when through feeding. It is not necessary to leave food and water in the fly coop. Just give them food and water once a day, in the evening.

When the birds have been on this diet for three weeks, they should be in good flying condition and you can then give them what the Tippler men call a "feed-up" to see how they will do in a long fly. Three days before the fly day, give the birds Espom salts in their drinking water. For instance, if the fly is to take place on a Sunday, give it to them on Wednesday evening. It should be given in the proportion of one teaspoonful of salts to a pint of water. Do not fly them between Wednesday and Sunday. Thursday evening, give them a feed of small seeds consisting of equal parts canary seed, millet, and rape. Repeat this diet on Friday and Saturday evenings.

Then on Sunday morning about an hour before release, give them a light feeding of the small seeds and a drink of water. If they are in good shape they will likely not want very much, but try to get them to take a drink anyway. Release them a few minutes after sunrise so that they will have all the daylight possible in which to do their flying. If the Tiplers are of a good strain and trained as above, they should fly a good long time for you.

In June 1946, we flew a kit of five young birds, trained as outlined in this article over 16 hours. The droppers were shown at 16 hours and 4 minutes, but the kit continued to fly right on into the dark and consequently we were disqualified in the race. The fly rules specify that a competitor must drop his birds and have the band numbers checked by the timer in order to qualify for time in the race. Fortunately, the birds all came home the following morning, but in very poor condition after their all-day fly and missing their feed at night.

To show that one colour flies as well as another for us, this kit was composed of a Mottle, Print, Dun Print, and Solid Yellow. Upon maturity, they turned out to be one cock and four hens.

This method of training has proven very successful for us and we hope that other fanciers will profit by it, too.

From NEBOJSA MILIC

On 11-30-1994, Nebojsa Milic wrote to Walter Wiechec as follows:

"I have found your address in American Pigeon Journal. I am very interested in Tippler pigeons. I had them in Yugoslavia before I moved to the U.S.A. in 1992. I would like to buy a couple pairs of the best quality, the ones that fly high. I do not have addresses or telephone numbers of any breeders who have Tipplers for sale. Please, could you send me names, addresses and telephone numbers and competition results for this year. I would be very happy if any of the members of the club send their offers and prices of their pigeons, blood lines, flying times, and characteristics of their pigeons.

Now, something about myself. I was born in 1956. I am familiar in pigeons since age of 11. At the beginning, I had only local high flying pigeons, Serbian High Flyers. In 1976, I started with Tipplers. In 1985, I became Secretary of YUTS (Yugoslavian Tippler Union). I left that position 2 years ago when I moved to the U.S.A. I had 2 blood lines, Hughes and Boden. My best flying time was 17:56, then 17:46, 17:20, 16:53, 16:22, 16:12, 15:15, and many below 15 and 14 hours. My best time for young birds was 14:10 in June 1992.

Could you please help me to get these addresses because I am really missing pigeons a lot. I really like to have them and get ready for competition. I would like to know how people here organize competitions. I wish you a lot of good luck in the next season.

Nash, Nebojsa Milic, 1225 Barnard Drive, Las Vegas, NV 89102. (702) 258-0081."

BARLEY

Barley in the hull is a wonderful training food for Flying Tipplers. For years, I (SRP) have tried to find a feed store that sold barley in the hull. The only place that one could buy it was from suppliers for the brewing industry, and the prices that they wanted were exorbitant, to say the least. Recently, I found a feed store that sells 100 pound bags of barley in the hull for less than $8.00. I am anxious to use it to train my birds on this year.

SCENIC AMERICA

March 20, 1995

Robert Powell
Abraham Lincoln
RD#1 Box 40
Carbondale, PA 18407

Dear Mr. Powell:

As a member of our Pennsylvania network, you've been receiving information from us on the necessity of preserving Pennsylvania's scenic resources. The state's spectacular and abundant scenic resources are jeopardized by a tide of unplanned, uncontrolled growth. Such disregard for the appearance of Pennsylvania's communities and countryside compromises the quality of life and prospects for long-term economic growth.

In the last two years, Scenic America has been making effective strides, working with a wide range of partners in the state, towards laying the groundwork for a conservation-oriented scenic byways program -- one combining land and other resource conservation with community development. We are approaching this project by developing grassroots and legislative support, by collaborating with officials and other public interest groups, by working on three specific "corridor management planning" efforts, and by demonstrating the economic and environmental benefits of scenic byways in other states.

Specifically, Scenic America is:

* Expanding the constituency for scenic conservation.

Scenic America has contacted over 200 organizations, officials, and individuals, building a broad base of support for scenic resource conservation.

* Giving Pennsylvanians the knowledge they need to improve the appearance of their communities. By demonstrating the political, economic, and environmental benefits of scenic byways protection, we've given scenic resource advocates a leg up in fighting for the protections they need.

* Gaining media coverage raising public awareness throughout the state regarding threats facing the state's scenic resources and the ways in which a state scenic byways program can combine conservation and economic development goals.

Scenic America has targeted Routes 381 and 711 and Route 30, the Lincoln Highway, as demonstration projects to test concepts for a state scenic byways program. We have chosen these routes because of the outstanding blend of scenic, historic, natural, cultural, and recreational resources, the community interest in recognizing and protecting these resources, and the opportunity to manage and guide their growth and development. We are also assisting four Local Development District offices in their preliminary scenic byway planning effort for Route 6, the Grand Army of the Republic Highway. We are urging the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation to consider these routes for 1996 funding under the National Scenic Byways Program.

Like you, we believe that with persistence and perseverance we can protect Pennsylvania's remarkable scenic heritage. We urge you to communicate to Governor Ridge and Secretary of Transportation Bradley L. Mallory for the adoption of a conservation-oriented state scenic byways program. We know of your commitment to scenic conservation and that is why we are asking for your support.

By joining Scenic America with a tax-deductible payment of $20 or more, you join a vital, growing organization committed to protecting your state's rich heritage. You will receive our quarterly newsletter, Viewpoints, as well as timely alerts on national scenic resource issues, invitations to conferences and seminars, and special offers on our publications. Plus, you tap into a network of activists and others who share your interest in scenic resource protection.

All too often we look around and wonder where the scenic resources we treasured have gone. Scenic America believes that we can do more than wonder. We can -- we must -- take action to reclaim, preserve, and enhance Pennsylvania's communities and countryside.

I hope that you will give every consideration to joining us, knowing that your support will help create a scenic Pennsylvania and a scenic America for us and for future generations.

Sincerely,

Sally Oldham

Re: Teaching

Would you be interested in teaching one or two sections of PHIL 100 (replacement for HUMAN 001) Fall Semester, 1995? Best time slots, in order of priority, would be 3, 2, 4, 5, 6 in either the MW or TR time cycles. If you wanted to teach and we needed two sections, they could be made on the same or opposite day cycles. In other words, I can be fairly flexible to accommodate your preferences.

Hope things are going well with you.

Dear Bruce:

Yes, I would be interested in teaching one or two sections of PHIL 100 for the Fall Semester, 1995.

I have accepted the offer of ICS Learning Systems of a position as editor in Product Development and began work there today. It is a full-time position, which will make it impossible for me to teach at PSU/WS during the day. I could, however, teach at 5 and/or 6, preferably on the TR time cycle. The MW time cycle would also be OK. In any event, I would not want to teach during both time cycles.

I am very pleased to know that there is a possibility of my teaching one or two sections of PHIL 100 during the Fall Semester and hope that something can be scheduled. Thank you for the offer. I appreciate it very much.

Sincerely,

RE: Accidental Death and Dismemberment Insurance
Benefits Statement

Dear S. R. Powell:

The Continental Casualty Company (CNA) Plan Administrator has just completed an audit of the Accidental Death and Dismemberment Insurance Plan provided by CNA for PNC Bank customers. Your personal Benefits Statement is enclosed.

Your statement indicates that you are currently insured for $20,000 of individual coverage in addition to the basic $1,000 benefit that is paid for by PNC Bank and provided to you at no cost. CNA's enrollment period for additional insurance ends on April 30, 1995, and those presently insured may increase their coverage without restriction. Your rates remain $1.10 per month for each additional $10,000 of coverage you select.

If you would like to take advantage of this opportunity to increase your coverage simply complete and mail the form attached to your statement. To extend coverage to your entire family just check "YES" on your form. Premiums for additional coverage that you select will be deducted from your account once each quarter.

If you have any questions please call the CNA Plan Administrator at 1-800-252-2148 weekdays and ask for the "Insurance Desk."

Sincerely,

Carl J. Lisman

ACCIDENTAL DEATH AND DISMEMBERMENT INSURANCE SUMMARY OF INSURANCE PROVISIONS-Continental Casualty Company (CNA)

As a member of the Sponsoring Group age 18 and over, you are eligible for $1,000 of Accidental Death and Dismemberment Insurance. At age 70 coverage is reduced to $500. Premiums for this Basic Coverage are paid by the Sponsoring Group. THERE IS NO COST TO YOU. Any Additional Coverage you now have is indicated on your Benefits Statement.

Coverage Provided

When covered injury results in any of the following losses to an insured person within one year from the date of the accident, the Company will provide, in one sum, the following amounts, including the Basic Coverage provided at no cost to the Primary Insured Person plus the percent of Additional Coverage, if selected, as indicated below (reduced 50% at age 70):

	Basic Coverage	plus	Percentage of Additional Coverage		Basic Coverage	plus	Percentage of Additional Coverage
Loss of life .....	$1,000	plus	100%	Loss of entire sight in one eye.....	$500	plus	50%
Loss of two members (hand, foot, or eye).....	$1,000	plus	100%	Loss of one hand or foot.....	$500	plus	50%
Loss of speech and hearing.....	$1,000	plus	100%	Loss of speech or hearing.....	$500	plus	50%
Loss of entire sight in both eyes .....	$1,000	plus	100%	Loss of thumb and index finger on same hand.....	$250	plus	25%

"Loss" as used above with reference to hand or foot means complete severance through or above the wrist or ankle joint; as used with reference to thumb and index finger means complete severance through or above metacarpophalangeal joints, as used with reference to eye means the irrecoverable loss in the entire sight thereof, and with reference to speech and hearing, entire and irrecoverable loss.

Who is Eligible

All members of the Sponsoring Group age 18 or older, their spouses and their unmarried dependent children are eligible for coverage. Dependent children are defined as those under age 19, but children age 19 and under age 23 are covered if they are full-time students in an accredited school, college or university and primarily dependent upon the customer for support and maintenance. (On joint accounts, the Primary Insured Person must sign the enrollment form.)

If the Sponsoring Group is a financial institution, on joint accounts the Primary Insured Person must sign the enrollment form and the $1,000 coverage described above will continue in force as long as the customer continues to have an eligible account with the sponsoring financial institution by making at least one deposit a year into the account.

Added Benefits

These added benefits only apply to Additional Coverage.

"Anti-Inflation" Benefit - For every two years Additional Coverage remains continuous, it will be increased by 5%. This provision can continue to increase coverage until it reaches 125% of the original amount of insurance.

Common Carrier Double Indemnity Benefit - If a covered loss occurs to an insured person while traveling as a fare paying passenger in or on a public conveyance operated by a licensed common carrier, the plan will double any benefits payable as the result of the accident.

Educational Assistance Benefit - If you have selected the Family Plan and lose your life in a covered accident, Educational Assistance benefits will be paid to your beneficiary for each dependent child who was enrolled as a full-time student in an institution of higher education on the date of the accident. Benefits will also be paid for dependent children who are in the 12th grade on the date of the accident, but who subsequently enroll in an institution of higher education within one year. The Educational Assistance benefit for each student who qualifies is 2% of your Additional Coverage. This benefit would be paid each year the student qualifies after your death, up to a maximum of 4 years. If at the time of the accident there are no eligible children, an additional 2% of your Additional Coverage will be paid to your beneficiary.

No Insurance Underwriting Restrictions

Every member of the Sponsoring Group age 18 or older who completes and returns an enrollment form will be accepted. There are no medical questions or physical examinations required for enrollment.

Individual Terminations

As long as you remain a member of the Sponsoring Group with an eligible account (if the Sponsoring Group is a financial institution), the premium is paid and the Master Policy remains in force, your coverage will be renewed. The Group Master Policy is annually renewable. Re-enrollment may be required during open enrollment periods.

Additional Coverage

Additional Coverage is available in the following amounts at affordable group rates. Choose the plan that is closest to your family's needs, keeping in mind that a reasonable minimum should be 1 1/2 times your annual salary, or more if your obligations are greater. Premiums will be charged to your account shown on your enrollment form once every three months.

Additional Coverage*	Individual Only Cost per Month	Family Plan Cost per Month	Additional Coverage*	Individual Only Cost per Month	Family Plan Cost per Month

If you do not have dependent children, your spouse will be insured for 60% of your Additional Coverage. If you are a single parent, each of your dependent children will be insured for 25% of your Additional Coverage.

ROBERT POWELL'S BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

At the top of my list of all-time favorite works of art is Virgil's AENEID. (For nearly 500 years, from soon after the the invention of printing from movable type, at least one new printed edition of the AENEID was published annually. Many people--in this instance, I'm one of the many--regard the AENEID as the principal secular book of the western world.) Other constant passions in the realm of the arts include the following: everything that Stravinsky wrote; the nineteenth-century French novel (especially Balzac, Flaubert, and Zola); the music of Prokofiev, Wagner, Mahler and Copland; Shakespeare's KING RICHARD THE THIRD and HENRY V; colonial American and Elizabethan portraiture; and American coin silver.

I was born and raised on a dairy farm in northeastern Pennsylvania and have always maintained a strong interest in the earth and rural matters. Presently, I raise and show a variety of exhibition poultry. In 1994, I was named a Master Exhibitor by the American Poultry Association. I am one of the poultry superintendents at the Harford Fair and at least a hundred of the birds shown there (and at the Wayne County Fair) annually belong to me. Every year, I make it a point to produce, in my backyard setup, as much maple syrup as possible (40 gallons of sap are needed to make one gallon of syrup; I tap six or seven trees). Some years, the sap runs well. This year it didn't, but I managed to make a couple gallons of syrup. Gardens are important to me, and I devote a lot of time and energy, year round, to flowers and vegetables. One of my rural objectives for the current year is to fence in a portion of the "back forty" and purchase some Milking Shorthorn calves.

My professional experience has been primarily in three areas: teaching (George Washington University, Indiana University, SUNY: Oswego, Susquehanna University, Penn State), publishing (Harcourt Brace, AMACOM, a couple of newspapers), and Wall Street (corporate finance at Salomon Brothers). I have been an adjunct in the Humanities at Penn State for several years, and will teach one or two sections of Philosophy 100 there in September in the evening. My dissertation is an interdisciplinary study (French literature, music, and art) that was written in Switzerland and France, for the most part, and which, over the years, has resulted in my doing a lot of independent work in the field of comparative aesthetics.

In his bio, James Clark states that "Product Development is a great place to work because of its people." I've only been here a couple weeks, but I'm sure his observation is correct.

DEAR CLAIMANT:

A NONFAULT OVERPAYMENT WAS ESTABLISHED AGAINST YOUR ACCOUNT AND A NOTICE OF OVERPAYMENT WAS PREVIOUSLY SENT TO YOU. YOUR CURRENT NONFAULT OVERPAYMENT BALANCE OWED IS $5,991.00. WE REQUEST THAT YOU REPAY THIS MONEY VOLUNTARILY. ALTHOUGH YOU ARE NOT LEGALLY REQUIRED TO DO SO, IT MAY BE BENEFICIAL FOR YOU TO REPAY THIS MONEY NOW RATHER THAN WAIT FOR THE COMMONWEALTH TO SEEK RECOUPMENT. SECTION 804(B) OF THE PENNSYLVANIA UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION LAW, WHICH IS PRINTED ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THIS LETTER, STATES THAT THE COMMONWEALTH IS EMPOWERED TO RECOVER ANY BENEFITS IMPROPERLY PAID TO YOU BY TAKING UP TO ONE-THIRD FROM FUTURE UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION BENEFIT CHECKS FOR THREE YEARS AFTER THE END OF THE BENEFIT YEAR IN WHICH THE OVERPAYMENT OCCURRED.

YOUR APPLICATION FOR BENEFITS WAS DATED 12/12/93. THEREFORE, THE PERIOD FOR RECOVERING THE MONEY FROM YOUR BENEFITS WILL LAST UNTIL 12/10/97. ## Tax Savings For Farmers

Pennsylvania has the nation's largest rural population and some of the world's most productive farms. Recognizing those assets, the Commonwealth has made special provisions to protect farmers from the burdens of taxation. The State Department of Agriculture offers a brochure called "Tax Savings for Farmers," which outlines some of the tax provisions that have been made to protect farms.

Farmers have several opportunities to minimize their state taxes, including sales tax, capital stock and franchise tax, inheritance tax, preferential land assessments, realty transfer taxes, exemptions from assessment for sewer and water hookups, personal income tax and liquid fuels tax refunds.

Information about these money saving provisions are available from the Department of Agriculture at 717-783-3167 or the Department of Revenue at 717-787-8201.

Pennsylvania Agriculture News is published quarterly by the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture for free distribution to members of the agricultural community and others who may be interested in agriculture.

Correspondence or ideas for future articles should be addressed to: Dyan Yingst, Editor, PDA Press Office, 2301 North Cameron Street, Harrisburg, PA 17110-9408.

Act 18 of 1973 exempts silos from taxation by defining them in the same manner as Act 17 of 1973.

Act 170 of 1981 also provides exemptions from assessment for certain in-ground and above-ground structures and containments used predominantly for processing and storage of animal waste and composting facilities.

Act 176 of 1984 amends the General County Assessment Law to allow exemption for free-standing detachable grain bins or corn cribs used exclusively for processing or storage of animal feed incidental to the operation of the farm on which it is located.

Realty Transfer Taxation:

Act 172 of 1984 amends the Local Tax Enabling Act to provide relief from local realty transfer tax when ownership of the farmland is transferred within a family from a sole proprietor family member to a family farm corporation.

Act 77 of 1986 amends the Tax Reform Code of 1971, Section 201 to provide relief from State realty transfer tax. Transfers of real estate devoted to the business of agriculture to a family farm corporation by a member of the same family which directly owns at least 75% of each class of stock thereof qualify. This Act also provides relief from state realty transfer tax for transfers between members of the same family of an ownership interest in a family farm corporation.

This Act also provides local realty transfer tax relief on these same types of transfers if the local taxing authority has adopted the State realty transfer tax base.

Act 77 also provides for State realty transfer tax relief for transfer to a conservancy which possesses a tax-exempt status pursuant to Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and which has as its primary purpose preservation of land for historic, recreational, scenic, agricultural or open-space opportunities. This exemption is also available for local realty transfer tax purposes.

Exemption From Assessment For Sewer and Water Hookups:

- Act 71 of 1976 exempts farmers from payments of assessments for municipal improvements such as installation of sewer and water lines. Farmers whose land has been used for agricultural production for three years prior to the installation of the water and sewer lines are not liable for the cost of lines fronting or crossing their land if they do not make use of the facilities.

The Department of Agriculture provides application forms and certifies that the land meets the requirements of the Act.

Personal Income Tax:

Act 110 of 1989 exempts from Pennsylvania personal income tax withholding the wages of agricultural employees or workers whose wages are exempt from Federal social security tax withholding.

Other Advantages:

Liquid fuels tax refunds for tax paid on gasoline used in farm tractors and farm machinery for agricultural businesses is provided by the Liquid Fuels Tax Act, Section 17. Claims are to be made annually by September 30 for the preceding one year period ending June 30. For example: by September 30, 1992 the claim must be filed for the period July 1, 1991 to June 30, 1992. Contact: Treasury Department's Board of Finance and Revenue at (717) 787-2974 to request the appropriate claim form.

Other information may be obtained from the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue, 11th Floor, Strawberry Square, Harrisburg, PA 17128.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Governor

Recycled Paper

Secretary of Agriculture

3265

Dear Farmer:

Pennsylvania is blessed with the nation's largest rural population and some of the world's most productive farms. Recognizing those assets, the Commonwealth has made special provisions to minimize state tax burdens on farms.

I urge all farmers to study this brochure carefully so that they become aware of what provisions have been made to protect their farms, which are really small, independent rural businesses.

I think you will agree that we have done a great deal to help protect our farms and farmers from the burdens of taxation. If you have any questions concerning the information in this publication, please contact the Department of Agriculture's Bureau of Farmland Protection (717) 783-3167, or the Department of Revenue (717) 787-8201.

Boyd E. Wolff

Sales Tax:

- Act 202 of 1980 amends the Tax Reform Code of 1971 (P.L. 6, No. 2) to exempt silo foundations and foundations used to support equipment, machinery, and parts used directly in farming.
- Farmers are allowed a sales tax exemption when purchasing "tangible personal property predominantly used directly in farming." Regulations on that exemption are available from the Department of Revenue, Sales Tax Division, by calling 717-783-9360.

Capital Stock/Franchise Tax:

- Act 179 of 1980 amends the State Tax Reform Code of 1971 (P.L. 6, No. 2, Section 602.2) to exempt Family Farm Corporations from the 13-mill Capital Stock/Franchise Tax. A family farm corporation is used as a mechanism to pass on the farm to heirs. The 13-mill Capital Stock/Franchise Tax had previously hampered the formation of family corporations. Tax exemption for a family farm corporation must be claimed each year on the corporation's Pennsylvania Corporate Tax Report. The instruction booklet, Form Rev. 1200 CI, describes the exemption and may be obtained by writing to: Pennsylvania Department of Revenue, Tax Forms Service Unit, 2850 Turnpike Industrial Drive, Middletown, PA 17057-5492.

Inheritance Taxes:

- Act 22 of 1991 amends Title 72 of the Pennsylvania Consolidated Statutes (Section 2122) to provide that farmland may be valued at its use value for inheritance tax purposes. This includes land in agricultural use, agricultural reserve and forest reserve. The Act provides that if the land use is changed within seven years following the death of the decedent in whose estate it was valued at use value, additional tax is imposed equal to the difference between the use value and the fair market value. Interest is also due. Responsibility for administration of the Act is assigned to the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue, Bureau of Individual Taxes, Dept. 280601, Harrisburg, PA 17128-0601.
- This Act also amends the PA Inheritance Tax Code (Section 2154) to include a provision for payment of quarterly installments of inheritance tax due on a small business including farms with less than 50 employees or partnerships less than 50 employees. Other requirements must also be satisfied.

Preferential Assessment Laws:

- The Pennsylvania Farmland and Forest Land Assessment Act, Act 319 of 1974 (72 P.S. Section 5490.1-5490.13), commonly known as the Clean and Green Act, permits preferential assessment of farmland and forest land. This Act is designed to preserve farmland, forest land, and open space by taxing land according to its use value rather than the prevailing market value.
- The program is voluntary and generally requires a minimum of ten acres that will remain in the designated use (agricultural use, agricultural reserve, forest reserve). Land taken out of the permitted use becomes subject to a roll-back tax, imposed for up to seven years plus six percent simple interest. Certain split-off or separated lands are exempted from the roll-back penalties in the law as long as the original use of the land does not change (Act 15 of 1980, P.L. 973, Section 2)
- Act 319 is administered by the County Assessment Office, where you may obtain information and application forms.
- The General County Assessment Law (P.L. 853, Section 201) was amended three times to benefit farming operations:
- Act 17 of 1973 allows exemption from assessment for silos used predominantly for processing or storage of animal feed incidental to the operation of the farm on which the silo is located.
- Act 28 of 1982 will exclude certain in-ground and above-ground structures and containers used predominantly for animal waste storage in determining farm values for assessment for taxation.
- Act 167 of 1984 allows exemption for other food storage structures, which includes "free-standing detachable grain bin or corn crib used exclusively for processing or storage of animal feed incidental to the operation of the farm on which it is located."
- The Fourth to Eighth Class County Assessment Law (P.L. 571, Section 201) was amended three times to benefit farming operations:

WBW—

Wonderful news! SRP has a legitimate job — as an Editor in Product Development at ICS. I've been looking for this job for 10 years, at least. It's perfect. I began on 3/27. When it rains, it pours: Penn State is now being very solicitous: how many sections of Phil. 100 would you like to teach, when would you like to teach etc.

I am very pleased that my days of working in retail sales are over (I hope). As I see it now, this present job will be it for the next 15 years or so

I got the job by answering a want ad for a proofreader.
I took the 3-hour proofreading test and was told that I "should be much more than a proofreader. Would you be interested in taking the test (3 hrs.) for an 3269 3.

editor? I took the test and they offered me the job, and that was that.

There are 5 Ph.D's in the department (Product Development), all of us with un-marketable degrees. It's a very nice environment to work in — the managing editor did his PhD in Renaissance studies and is interested in the French new novel! It's hard to believe. Is this Scranton?

The first step that I am to edit is a course called alternating Current Principles.

No matter. I have an office, a computer, the works. Is this a dream?

Things up in the barn are well; several hundred new Chicks "out and about."

Are you sure that you don't want a dozen <sup>guinea</sup> fowl?

I raised over 100 last year.

My best to you and to Christine.

Sincerely,

S R P.

Henry —

Thanks for the newspaper clipping about the Wyoming Historical & Geological Society opening. I appreciate it as it turns out, I began a wonderful full-time position as Editor in Product Development at ICS on 3/27/95. I've been looking for this job for 10 years. It's perfect.

Things at the CHS & M are well, but in a very low profile at the moment. I think we'll be just fine when the CHVA gets itself into gear.

I hope you are well & enjoying life in rural heaven.

Best regards,

SRP

NAURES BOOK OF LIFE: AN OUTDOOR CLASSROOM

An outdoor classroom is more than a study space outside the confines of walls and ceiling. It is a living reality, an all embracing forever exciting book on whose pages we can discover and experience the truth about ourselves, our world, and the God that has made us one and interdependent in the order of nature.

For those who take the time to read this living book an awareness dawns of our place in nature and the essential role that has been given to us in its preservation and development. We are stewards of nature, called not to be thoughtless consumer but thoughtful caretakers. We are called not to be despoilers of God's Creation, but to be co-creators with Him in the development of nature's bounty, not only for humankind but for all life.

Our world is not only teaming with life, our world is itself alive and evolving under God's Creating Hand. For a brief moment in the history of the universe, it is a home that we share with a multiplicity of living beings who in the order of nature are our brothers and sisters. Yes, we are our fellows keepers.

For a brief time many of us in the greater Carbondale Area were privileged to know an educator, Miss Deanna Dietz, whose love for God and His Creation motivated her to teach ecology, not as a subject in a classroom, but as a way of life. While living this way of life on a personal ecological quest, Deanna was taken from us on June 27, 1994. She taught love for life and responsibility for all that is living. it is fitting we dedicate this Park as an outdoor classroom in living memory to a woman who lived and taught our stewardship over nature.

April 10, 1995

Dear Sheryl,

After about a decade of searching, I have finally found a "legitimate" job-- as an editor in Product Development at ICS Learning Systems. Decent salary, excellent benefits, close to home, nice people to work with (there are four other Ph.D's with valueless degrees, like mine, in the department). I have my own office, replete with computer and all the trimmings, so to speak. This should all be very good for my self-esteem, which has all but disappeared in the past several years. I began to think that I would never get a job, and, of course, the clock continued to march forward and no one will even look twice at a 51-year old white male.

It all happened because I answered a want ad. I have probably answered 75 want ads in the past five years. Most of the time, you might just as well throw your resume and cover letter down a well. In this case, I applied for a job as a proofreader. To my delight, there were four errors in the ad as published in the newspaper. I gently pointed out the four errors in my cover letter. They called me for an interview. Sixty-five people applied for the position. I was one of three who were interviewed and who were asked to take the three-hour proofreading test (we all took it cold, with no preparation). They evaluated the proofreading test and the managing editor (the guy who hired me, ultimately) said: "You should be a lot more than just a proofreader, you know." "Would you be interested in taking the three-hour test for editor?" I took the test. They offered me the job. Could I wait for about a month until the necessary funding was in place? Yes, I could. A new division was to be established, etc. I started on March 27th, and I love it. One of the things that greatly impressed one of the production editors who interviewed me was the fact that I worked at one time for an organization that calls itself AMACOM! The whole world is crazy at present, as you know, for interactive things. When I told them that I had worked on multimedia presentations at AMACOM they all came forward on their chairs and listened with great interest. Who would ever have dreamed that AMACOM would be useful in getting a job twenty years after the work experience there.

This job is good for me for lots of reasons, not the least of which is that it will help me regain my self-esteem, as I said earlier. These past several years have been bad. I have seen myself falling into a pit out of which there seemed to be no escape. To keep body and soul together, I worked in the garden center of a nearby Wal-Mart; then in the bakery in an extra-fancy grocery store that is regarded as the ne plus ultra of grocery stores in this area. It's actually very nice. Reminds me of Les Halles. They make about 15 different kinds of bread every day, including baguettes, batards, pain de campagne, etc.--all VERY delicious. It was fun, but paid hardly more than minimum wage. For the past year, I have not even had the pleasure of teaching as an adjunct at Penn State--declining enrollment, no sections for adjuncts to teach, etc. One week after I accepted this new job at ICS, Penn State wrote and asked me how many courses I would like to teach, when would I like to teach them, etc. Very solicitous. When it rains, it pours. I will probably teach two sections of Philosophy 100 during the fall semester.

For months and months, I have had your letter of September 11, 1994 on my desk, but, given my personal woes, could not answer it. I feel now like I have been given a new lease on life, and I suppose I have. Finally, the clouds have parted.

You'll like this: we now have a cat! My nephew was given a kitten at a local auction. It's an orange and white cat. My nephew named the cat "Auction." My nephew, my brother, my mother and I all make complete fools of ourselves when it comes to this cat. We all love this creature and he knows it. We believe that Auction is the nicest cat in the entire county, possibly the state. Auction even has his own bedroom.

Your mother is surely settled in West Palm Beach by this time. If nothing else, we should all remain as flexible as possible, I guess. Your job-related anxiety is, I'm sure, very anxiety producing. The amusing thing is that there are more than a few people in our generation who are preparing to retire, whereas there are some of us who are just starting out. As French majors, we shouldn't have to worry about such things. I used to agree with Edith Piaf when she said "non, je ne regrette rien, rien de rien..." Now I find myself thinking: "Oui, j'ai des regrets, . . ."

What's wrong with Max? Old age? I can't remember how old he is. Given all my chickens (I was recently named a Master Exhibitor by the American Poultry Association), I frequently have to deal with illness and death in the poultry barn. It's never easy. Sometimes I have solemn funerals. Sometimes I don't. I always feel so useless because in most cases there is not much you can do for bird illnesses. With chickens, it's usually some kind of respiratory problem.

Janice, bless her heart, is going to be in New York on May 19-20-21. She has persuaded me that I should visit her there on Saturday the 20th and stay over night. She is staying at the St. Moritz on the Park. She will be there on a company trip. Shouldn't the three of us go to Chinatown on Saturday afternoon/evening or Sunday during the day?

That's it for the moment. I hope that you are amenable to the idea of a trip to Chinatown on the 20th or the 21st of May.

Love,

Robert

Yields 2 to 5 times more spears than other varieties!

(GV 203S) Test plantings in New England, Mid-Atlantic, Canada, N. Zealand proved Supermale so much better than other varieties it almost defies description. Our certified variety resists rust, root/ crown rot, fusarium. Doesn't produce volunteer seedlings to compete with parent stock. Lives almost forever. Early, extremely vigorous, with tender green spears  $\frac{3}{4}$  inch diameter and larger.

Succulent spears of Rutgers-developed, patented Supermale (Jersey Knight) are so abundant you get as much as 248% to 500% more spears year after year—a 5 fold increase! Plant fewer, in less space, for all the gourmet-quality asparagus you want. Shipped spring only.

Karner Blue Butterfly
(Lycaides melissa sanuelis)

This delicate, fragile, butterfly still survives in only seven states and four of these contain only three or fewer populations. The problem: the Karner Blue depends on a single "host" plant — the wild lupine. This plant thrives only in dry, open edges of sandy savannas and scrubby woodland. But increasing urbanization has destroyed the habitat of the lupine, along with careless insecticide spray. The Nature Conservancy is protecting potential Karner Blue habitat through voluntary land owner agreements and land acquisition in Michigan, New Hampshire and New York.

The mission of The Nature Conservancy is to preserve plants, animals and natural communities that represent the diversity of life on earth by protecting the lands and water they need to survive.

These look very familiar to me.
I wonder if there are any wild lupines here on the Russell Homestead?

MONTHLY REPORT FOR APRIL 1995

S. Robert Powell

April 1995 was my first complete month in Product Development at ICS Learning Systems; began work at ICS on March 27, 1995.

In the course of the month, my time was divided among three projects:

1. Training (2007-20-4200-000020-00101): became familiar with ICS editing procedures and improved my computer skills.

2. ALTERNATING CURRENT PRINCIPLES: Study Unit 2, Alternating Current Circuits (2007-22-4940-228612). Edited study unit, and coded for Ventura; prepared art pack.

3. ALTERNATING CURRENT PRINCIPLES, Study Unit 4, Capacitors in AC Circuits (2007-22-4940-228614). Began editing study unit.

Some Observations:

--the work environment in Product Development is very conducive to learning and I have learned A GREAT DEAL in my brief time here; it's reassuring to re-learn that there are people on planet Earth who are willing to help others;

--there is a strong sense of teamwork and cooperation in Product Development.

VASQUEZ FANCY POULTRY

101 VEREDA DE VALENCIA
SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO 87505
( 505 ) 471-1373

April 1995

Fellow fanciers,

Thank you for your interest in the Standard Modern Game club. The list of people who replied to the notice in the Press and those who are known to have modern standards are listed on the third page. There are a few who did not return my inquiry letter. If you should know a breeder who is not listed below have them send me a letter or note for listing. It is crucial to have all the breeders of this grand breed known as to not lose the history or breed lines.

There are a number of things that should be addressed at this time like the type of club we should be. Election of officers, regional representatives, goals, by laws, dues, news letters etc. Recommendations on these should be sent to me a.s.a.p. for a vote by those interested before the summer is over.

One of my concerns is that the rare colors are to few in numbers and we need to have some large hatches and spread among the breeders for a major exhibition hopefully for the year 2000. I believe that four and half years is enough time too plan for such a event.

I myself exhibit at the New Mexico State Fair and can have 50 standard moderns plus of different varieties. If possible, during the next few years hatch as many moderns as you can espesicailly the rare colors and maybe the plan of the largest gathering of Standard Modern Games in modern time could and can be a reality. It is not unreasonable to expect a gathering of up to 500.

It may be to our advantage at that time to try to get the lesser varieties like the Blue Red, Lemon Blue, Splash, Blue, Blue Wheaton admitted to the American Poultry Association. Since my first attempt to get the Association to relax the rules of admission for new or old varieties was denied.

Please be thinking of a central location in the U.S. for us to have the meet of the century and make your suggestions early.

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Members:

The weekend of May 6-7 is approaching very quickly. We have a lot to do in these final days before the auction and show to make sure that both events come off smoothly and are unqualified successes. EVERYONE'S HELP IS NEEDED. If we all do our fair share, the work will be accomplished very easily and everyone will have an enjoyable time.

Some high priorities on our "needs" list are the following:

- donations of food (or money to buy food) for the food stand;
- people to help during the auction, especially runners;
- people to help, after the auction, to prepare the building for the show;
- items for the Chinese Auction;
- people to help clean the building after the show.

GET INVOLVED. The greater your involvement, the more you will enjoy the weekend.

What's about to bloom in Bloomsburg? A first-class poultry auction and show.

See you there.

Mark Whitebread

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

We are pleased to welcome the following members to the CPAC:

BETTY and CARL HALL, JR.
(R. R. 2, Box 285, Unityville, PA 17774.
Telephone: 485-6975).

DR. MARY BELL (400 West 24th Street, Chester, PA 19014).

THE PUZZLES!

Wait till you see the puzzles that will be awarded to the class champions at our show! THEY ARE BEAUTIFUL. Briget Kane had several of them at the Sussex show and they were shown around. The reaction of everyone who saw them was the same: WOW! Three cheers for BRIGET KANE for having found the puzzle man who, by the way, will be at our show to accept personal commissions from one and all. THESE PUZZLES MAY WELL BE THE NICEST PRIZES FOR CLASS CHAMPIONS THAT YOU WILL SEE ANYWHERE FOR A LONG TIME.

CPAC MEETING, 04-08-1995

The following members were present at the work session/meeting in the poultry building on the Bloomsburg Fairgrounds on April 8, beginning at 10 A.M.: Wally Casazza, Craig Russell, Mark D. Whitebread, Tom Richardson, Gene R. Emery, Leon J. Keeler, Carl Harris, Mark Burns, and S. Robert Powell.

The old adage about many hands making light work was proven to be true by the CPAC members at the work session. In what appeared to be "no time at all," shavings and water cups were put in all of the cages and the rear portion of the building was readied for the auction.

The group then repaired to the Perkins Pancake House (is that the name of the restaurant?) at the Buckhorn exit to I-81, and partook of light refreshments.

Mark Whitebread reported that he had ordered the special plaques to honor Tom Crittenden and Vic Corson. Carl Harris said that he had spoken on the phone with Tom Crittenden's wife, Edna, and she reported that Tom, now 89, is paralyzed and will not be able to attend the show but that she or one of their children will be present at the show to receive the plaque. The Crittenden family is very pleased that Tom will be honored by the CPAC at this year's show.

It was mentioned from the floor that a couple of clarifications and additions to the "specials" in the show catalogue could be made, and SRP was asked to print those clarifications and additions in the May NEWSLETTER.

Wally Casazza, Treasurer, reported that we have a little over $300 in the treasury at present, which is not surprising because of the expenses that must be incurred to get ready for the auction and show. Wally noted that on January 8, 1995, there was $2,034.45 in the CPAC's treasury. Wally reported that generous cash donations had recently been made to the club by Florence Mathews and Tom Richardson for kitchen expenses.

Carl Harris mentioned that he has a copy of the WHITE WYANDOTTE STANDARD from circa 1910 and that there were over 2,000 members in that organization at that time, including 10 or 12 members from Williamsport.

It was reported that the CPAC will serve free coffee all day at the show on May 7th.

Birds will be accepted for the auction on Friday the 5th until 9 P.M. New auction procedures will be followed this year. Those procedures are stated in the show catalogue.

Florence Mathews has donated a picture to the CPAC for the show. Gene Emery has donated a wooden rocking horse that he has made to the CPAC for the show. Both of these items will be awarded as prizes at the show. Special thanks to Florence Mathews and Gene Emery for these beautiful prizes.

SRP distributed copies of a poultry show/auction poster that he produced for the upcoming auction and show. He also submitted to the group for approval a draft of a press release about the auction/show that he will send to many newspapers in the region. The group gave its approval of the draft.

Wally reported that there will be five or six vendors at our show and that we will have to have tables available for their use. Mark Whitebread remarked that we will have to have a table set up for Dr. Langenbach to use as he conducts the Junior Showmanship class at the show.

With no further business to conduct, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
S. Robert Powell

CHAMPION PIGEONS

Congratulations to Bill and Mike Kell on their impressive wins at the First District American King Club show in December 1994 at Carlisle, PA. The Kells had Grand Champion King on a white old cock, Champion Black on an old hen, and Champion Ash Bar on a young hen. The judge of the show was Jim Murphy, from Illinois.

We learned of these wins during a telephone call from Mike Kell on 04-06-

1995. The Kells plan to show some Call Ducks and some Cornish Bantams at the club show in May.

FROM CARL HARRIS

Volume XII, Number 3 (March 1985) of Blair & Ketchum's COUNTRY JOURNAL contains a 15-page special section (pp. 37-51) on raising chickens. There are several articles in the special section: (1) "The Classic Breeds" by Terry Kerns, drawings by Don Almquist; "Coop on Wheels" by Edward N. Robinson; "Hatching Your Own" by Peter Garnham, illustrations by Frank Fretz.

This series of articles is well done and, I would think, had the effect of causing more than a few readers of COUNTRY JOURNAL to try their hand at raising poultry.

PRESS RELEASES

A detailed press release about the CPAC's upcoming auction and show was prepared by SRP and mailed, on 04-24-1995, to the 27 newspapers named below. If you see the release in any of those papers, the Editor would appreciate it if you would give him (or mail to him) a copy of the page of the newspaper on which the press release was published.

"YELLOW" SHEET ENCLOSED

An eye-catching "yellow" poster about our auction and show is enclosed. Take this poster and put it on a bulletin board that will be seen by poultry people. Time, of course, is of the essence. Since our auction and show will take place this coming weekend, you must get this poster up fast if it is to be seen by persons who might be interested in attending our auction and show.

It is not, I'm sure, an exaggeration to say that THERE ARE HUNDREDS OF POTENTIAL POULTRY FANCIERS OUT THERE WHO HAVE NO IDEA THAT WE EXIST. Possibly, by an effective distribution of this poster--and through the press release described elsewhere in this NEWSLETTER--we can find out who those potential poultry fanciers are and invite them to join the CPAC.

Let's all do our share in this recruiting effort.

E. COLI VACCINE

The newspaper clipping given below, about the recently licensed vaccine for Escherichia coli infection, was published in the April 6, 1995 issue (p. 14) of INTERCOM, which is published by Penn State University. Thank you to Donald W. Powell for bringing this article to the Editor's attention.

News in Brief

Vaccine licensed

The poultry industry incurs multimillion dollar losses each year to the ravages of Escherichia coli infections. This deadly bacterial infection kills or debilitates millions of young chickens and accounts for a large percentage of all poultry condemned at processing plants.

Richard A. Wilson in the Department of Veterinary Science, and his colleagues, Thomas Whittan and Vivek Kapur, may have found a cure for this poultry disease. A U. S. patent is pending on this invention, which was recently licensed by Penn State's Intellectual Property Office to a major animal health company.

The discovery, which involves vaccination using a non-virulent strain of E. coli, has been shown to make chickens immune to these pathogenic bacterial infections. If ongoing field trials prove successful, a major public benefit to the poultry industry will have resulted from the veterinary research program.

CLEAN UP

ON SATURDAY, MAY 20, 1995, WE WILL CLEAN THE POULTRY BUILDING. ON THE

FAIRGROUNDS AT BLOOMSBURG. PLEASE MAKE AN EFFORT TO BE THERE. If there are at least ten or fifteen of us there, the job will be quickly accomplished and everyone will have a good time. If only a small handful of members show up, the job will be exhausting and time consuming and those who do the job will go away mad.

LET'S ALL DO OUR FAIR SHARE!

WALTER FRANKLIN LETTER

In the 04-02-1995 issue of this NEWSLETTER (p. 12), we printed the first part of a letter that Walter Franklin wrote to Mr. Nash of the SPPA. The conclusion of that letter, in which the names of several poultry fanciers well known to CPAC members (Carl Harris; Cecil Rose; Carter, Adrienne and Melissa Blankenship) are mentioned, is given below:

"At first a few chicks showed up with the wrong combs. The rose and single combed birds were discarded. But the largest and best colored pea combed birds were kept. We thought the world ought to have Buff Cornish Bantams. These had fair buff color and combs as good as a lot that we see at the shows. But they lacked the wide shoulders and heavy bones that any self-respecting Cornish ought to carry. So we got a White Laced Red Cornish Bantam from Carl Harris and introduced him to our pullets. Our aim, of course, was to get more bone and body width, tighter feathering, and better all around Cornish type while holding the buff color. It looks hopeful, but we are not working with enough birds to make rapid progress, so must label this project 'Incomplete.'

The White Chantecler Bantams came much more easily. We crossed White Cornish on White Wyandotte Bantams and vice versa, in 1980. The next season, we crossed the Cornish-Wyandotte birds with White Plymouth Rock Bantams. The resulting cushion-combed birds were to be our White Chantecler Bantams.

The Chanteclers are supposed to have relatively long bodies and close feathering. So I looked for these characteristics when selecting our original component stock. The standard listed some of these same requirements for the Rhode Island breed. So in our White Chantecler Bantams, we discarded any with single or pea combs. But any good ones with rose combs, we labeled Rhode Island White. Perfection does not come overnight (if at all), and we have to keep selecting with the standard requirements uppermost in our minds. We had only a limited number of these, but the quality seems well within the ball park, and we expect them to improve.

The Partridge Chanteclers, in 1981, were the last Chantecler variety we started with. That year, we crossed a Dark Cornish Bantam male on a Partridge Wyandotte female. The next season, the resulting cushion combed females were mated with a Partridge Plymouth Rock Bantam male. Birds resulting from this mating, and having the best Partridge color and Chantecler type, were selected to produce the Partridge Chantecler Bantams to breed from in the future.

I have to thank Carl Harris and Cecil Rose for finding for me the varieties of birds that I didn't have to make these various Chantecler, Rhode Island White and Buff Chantecler Bantam breeds and varieties.

According to my records, the first of these Chantecler Bantams were shown on May ninth and tenth at the CPAC (Cent. Pa. Avian Club) which I believe was held at Hughesville, Pa. In this show Buff Chantecler and White Chantecler Bantams were shown. White Chantecler and Rhode Island White Bantams were also shown at the Pa. Farm Show at Harrisburg in 1983 and after. A White Chantecler cockerel won Reserve Champion All Other Combs Clean Legged at the CPAC show at Bloomsburg in 1985, and Adrienne Blankenship's White Chantecler Bantam won champion All Other Combs Clean Legged Bantam at the Sussex show in New Jersey this year.

Adrienne and Carter Blankenship are very active in trying to promote the Chantecler breed. Adrienne is secretary of the 'Chantecler Club of North America,' and does a very good job. The Blankenships have some of all three varieties of Chantecler in both large and bantam. Their daughter, Melissa, still in her early teens, got most of my remaining Rhode Island White Bantams. So I am counting on the Blankenships where I seem to be falling down on the job.

Deteriorating eyesight and other physical problems seem to be conspiring to drastically curtail my poultry related activities. So I am delighted to find friends who are interested in perpetuating the varieties of poultry that I have been working on.

Carl Harris was interested in Buff Cornish at the time we started ours. I haven't seen him for a couple of years. He may be ahead of us in this area now. But he let us have the White Laced Red Cornish Bantams to upgrade our Buff Cornish Bantams. So he is entitled to some of their progeny if he wants them. I must contact him.

A few breeders are raising the large Buff Chanteclers. We donated hatching eggs to the CPAC a few times for their auction. I am not sure where they all went. A few of the Chantecler bantam eggs went that way too, but not very many. We never had a lot of them.

We are planning to keep only about twenty or thirty birds in the future. We are reducing the number as fast as we can. My wife has been caring for them the past couple of months, assisted by our daughter who lives next door.

Dear Fellow Grangers:

A concerted effort is presently underway to determine who are the members of the Moosic Grange who are active members and who are inactive members. The reason for this effort is the fact the active members are required to pay the state dues for the members of the Moosic Grange who are on the membership list but who are inactive members.

This letter is being sent to everyone on the membership list. If you would like to remain on the membership list of the Moosic Grange, please contact me (or another member of the Grange who you know is an active member) and tell us that you would like to be regarded as an active member. Unless we hear from you, one way or the other, before June 15th, 1995, we will have to regard you as an inactive member and your name will be removed from the rolls of the Moosic Grange.

I hope that it will not be necessary to place anyone on the inactive list. The Grange, as you know, is a worthy community organization and deserves the support of the largest percentage possible of the community.

Annual dues are $10. If you have not yet paid your dues for 1995, take this opportunity to do so. Why not bring your dues with you to the next meeting of the Moosic Grange, which will be on May 15th at 7:30 P.M. If you prefer to mail your dues, the name and address of the Treasurer are as follows:

Mrs. Doris Howell, Treasurer
Moosic Grange
R. R. 1, Box 1583
Waymart, PA 18472.

We look forward to seeing you at the next meeting of the Moosic Grange.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. Henry T. Lorent, Deputy Warden
WAYNE COUNTY PRISON
318 Tenth Street
Honesdale, PA 18431

Dear Mr. Lorent:

The Moosic Grange, R. D., Waymart, would like to be on the list of buildings to be painted by the prisoners at the Wayne County Prison for the current year. We do understand that the Moosic Grange will have to furnish all supplies and that that the Wayne County Prison will supply only labor.

The Moosic Grange Hall, located between Waymart corners and Curtis Valley, is not a particularly large building and it is a building of only one story. The building is in good shape, but it does need a coat of paint.

I hope that it will be possible for us to rely on the labor available through the Wayne County Prison to accomplish the painting of the building.

The Moosic Grange will meet next on May 15th at 7:30 P.M. If it is possible to know whether or not we are on the painting list for 1995 before that meeting, that would be very helpful to us.

Sincerely,

S. Robert Powell, Secretary

Dear Briget--

I've made up some forms that I will use to gather statistics so that I can write an article on the show for POULTRY PRESS. Maybe these forms will be of some use to you also?

I understand that we have over 800 birds! That is WONDERFUL news.

See you in a few days.

Best regards,

POULTRY AUCTION AND SHOW TO BE HELD AT BLOOMSBURG
FAIRGROUNDS THIS WEEKEND

A wide variety of exhibition-quality standard and bantam chickens, waterfowl, pigeons, pheasants, cage birds and poultry supplies will be auctioned off in the poultry building on the Bloomsburg Fairgrounds this Saturday morning, May 6th, beginning at 10 A.M. The auction is sponsored by the Central Pennsylvania Avian Club, an organization that was established in 1974 to promote all species of exhibition poultry, pigeons, game and cage birds.

Carl Harris, a long-time member of the club, offered the following description of the birds that will be auctioned off on Saturday: "There will be a wide variety of purely ornamental birds for sale. In addition, there will be a large number of show-type birds of well-known breeds. There are two strains of many breeds of poultry: one for production and one for show. There are, for example, exhibition White Leghorns and there are production White Leghorns. The production birds are bred to lay eggs. The exhibition strain is bred for its show qualities. Even though both strains are called Leghorns, they are not exactly alike in appearance. The birds that will be auctioned off on Saturday are all exhibition-quality birds."

Saturday's auction will be followed, on Sunday, with an all-day poultry show in the poultry building on the Bloomsburg Fairgrounds. The poultry show, also sponsored by the Central Pennsylvania Avian Club, will begin at 9 A.M. In this show, to which the general public is invited, hundreds of exhibition birds, of a multitude of breeds and varieties, will be on exhibit.

The birds will be arranged in classes established by the American Poultry Association and the American Bantam Association. The full-size or standard chickens are divided into the following classes: American, Asiatic, English, Mediterranean, Continental, and All Other Standard Breeds. Among the breeds of poultry in the American class, for example, are Plymouth Rocks, Rhode Island Reds and Wyandottes. In the Mediterranean class are the Leghorns, Minorcas, and Anconas, among others.

The bantam chickens are divided into the following classes: Single Comb Clean Legged , Rose Comb Clean Legged, Feather Legged, Old English and American Games, Modern Games, and All Other Combs Clean Legged. Among the breeds in the Feather Legged class, for example, are Cochins, Brahmas, and Booted Bantams.

The ducks will be classed as follows: bantam ducks, light weight ducks, medium weight ducks, and heavy weight ducks. The geese will be divided into three classes: light, medium and heavy. The turkeys will all be classed together, as will the Guinea Fowl.

How are the birds judged and by whom? In many respects, the procedures associated with a poultry show are similar to those followed in cattle shows and other livestock competitions. In a poultry show, the birds are evaluated to determine how well they meet exacting standards of perfection with regard to type and color. The birds that conform to those standards to the highest degree and are in the best show condition will be named the show champions. To make those decisions, judges that are licensed by the ABA and the APA are hired by poultry clubs to evaluate all of the birds, by classes. In order to do so, the judge removes each bird from its cage and examines it (1) to determine how well it conforms to the exacting published standard of perfection for that variety and breed, and (2) to appraise the bird's specific show condition.

Wally Casazza, secretary/treasurer of the poultry club, offered the following description of the procedures followed by the judges in each class: "First the judge selects the best bird of each variety. Then the best bird in each breed. Then from among the best birds of all of the breeds in that class, the judge selects the best bird for that class, and that bird is named class champion. The second best bird in each class is named the reserve champion."

When a class champion is picked for each of the classes in the standard chickens, a Champion Standard Chicken is selected from among all of the class champions. The same procedure is followed for all breeds and varieties of bantam chickens, waterfowl, turkeys, and guinea fowl. Appropriate prizes are then awarded to those champions. After all of the champions have been selected, a Champion of the Show is selected from among all of the class champions.

The Champion of the Show will be awarded the Clifton Smith Memorial Trophy, which is a rotating trophy that is awarded every year to the best bird in the entire show in memory of the late Clifton Smith of Hughesville who, for many years, was the superintendent of the poultry department at the Lycoming County Fair in Hughesville. Last year, the trophy was awarded to S. Robert Powell, from Carbondale, for his win with a Pearl Guinea Fowl cock.

For additional information on this poultry auction and show, interested persons are asked to contact either the president of the Central Pennsylvania Avian Club, Mark Whitebread (717-256-3127) or the secretary/treasurer, Wally Casazza (717-458-6358).
